Junie B. Jones. The B stands for Beatrice. Except, I don't like Beatrice. I just like B and that's all.

~Barbara Park

A little glitter can turn your whole day around.

~Barbara Park

I don't really believe in pretending to be happy when you're not. Mostly I believe that you should burden your friends with your problems.

~Barbara Park

Even though sometimes you can control your anger, you can't control your sadness.

~Barbara Park

I was a good kid, but I was just very chatty. Teachers were rarely entertained, but occasionally a child was, which was enough for me. Everything was so urgent. I needed to say it immediately.

~Barbara Park

I'm not actually sure I'm grown-up enough for grown-up books.

~Barbara Park

My senior year of high school, I was voted Wittiest. So, several years later, I decided to try my hand at writing humor to see if I could be witty enough to make some money.

~Barbara Park

Can't we be friends?' I hate your guts, Frankovitch' Can't our guts be friends?

~Barbara Park

I don't even like clowns. Clowns are not normal people.

~Barbara Park

I'm so lazy as far as liking to get up, go to the office in my pajamas, get dressed about noon. And I hate flying. So I have this really laid-back, good lifestyle, and it's hard to nudge me out of it.

~Barbara Park

I find the term perfect child to be an oxymoron.

~Barbara Park

A stick or a stone only stings for a minute. A name seems to hurt forever.

~Barbara Park

And sometimes when you're very mixed-up inside, you do things you know you shouldn't do.

~Barbara Park

Sometimes grown ups don't act their right old age

~Barbara Park

Society just has a way of inhibiting you, which is good and bad.

~Barbara Park

The upside to grief is it takes away your appetite. When people say you look good they really mean it. Nature's thoughtful that way.

~Barbara Park

Moving makes you feel all alone inside.

~Barbara Park

Our nannas are losers.
