The search for truth takes you where the evidence leads you, even if, at first, you don't want to go there.

~Bart D. Ehrman

Sometimes Christian apologists say there are only three options to who Jesus was: a liar, a lunatic or the Lord. But there could be a fourth option - legend.

~Bart D. Ehrman

My students sometimes ask: what is a fundamentalist? I give them a very simple definition. A fundamentalist is no fun, too much damn, and not enough mental.

~Bart D. Ehrman

There are few things more dangerous than inbred religious certainty.

~Bart D. Ehrman

You can't believe something just because someone else desperately wants you to.

~Bart D. Ehrman

Different authors have different points of view. You can't just say, 'I believe in the Bible.'

~Bart D. Ehrman

As time goes on, things do get made up.

~Bart D. Ehrman

The problem then with Jesus is that he cannot be removed from his time and transplanted into our own without simply creating him anew.
