You CAN be what you want to be. Whatever that is.

~Benjamin Watson

I'M EMBARRASSED because the looting, violent protests, and law breaking only confirm, and in the minds of many, validate, the stereotypes and thus the inferior treatment.

~Benjamin Watson

It's a sin problem, not a skin problem.

~Benjamin Watson

If fathers aren't growing up, I would challenge them to want to be a father that is present in the home, so that their kids have that identity.

~Benjamin Watson

I'M OFFENDED, because of the insulting comments I've seen that are not only insensitive but dismissive to the painful experiences of others.

~Benjamin Watson

Moral failure occurs when people lose focus and gradually drift off the path.

~Benjamin Watson

When we look at our children, I think a lot of the troubles we're having as a society is because we don't have strong fathers in these families that can tell their kids that they can do more.

~Benjamin Watson

I believe that I have a platform because God blessed me with the talent to play football. Having that talent, my job is to be responsible with it.

~Benjamin Watson

I'M ANGRY because the stories of injustice that have been passed down for generations seem to be continuing before our very eyes.

~Benjamin Watson

When you are public figure, you're an athlete or actor, that is your job to speak out on certain things. I think you speak out on what you desire to speak out on or your passionate about.
