Those who matter don't mind, and those who mind don't matter.

~Bernard Baruch

Only liars manage to always be out during bad times and in during good times.

~Bernard Baruch

No man can humiliate me or disturb me. I won't let him.

~Bernard Baruch

Two things are bad for the heart - running up stairs and running down people.

~Bernard Baruch

Millions saw the apple fall but Newton was the one who asked why.

~Bernard Baruch

Behind the black portent of the new atomic age lies a hope which, seized upon with faith, can work out salvation... Let us not deceive ourselves: we must elect world peace or world destruction.

~Bernard Baruch

We did not all come over on the same ship, but we are all in the same boat.

~Bernard Baruch

In trading/ investing it's not about how much you make, but how much you don't lose

~Bernard Baruch

Most of the successful people I've known are the ones who do more listening than talking.

~Bernard Baruch

Don't try to buy at the bottom and sell at the top. It can't be done except by liars.

~Bernard Baruch

The art of living lies less in eliminating our troubles than in growing with them.

~Bernard Baruch

One of the secrets of a long and fruitful life is to forgive everybody everything everynight before you go to bed.

~Bernard Baruch

The main purpose of the stock market is to make fools of as many men as possible.

~Bernard Baruch

A speculator is a man who observes the future, and acts before it occurs.

~Bernard Baruch

It is far more difficult... to know when to sell a stock than when to buy.

~Bernard Baruch

Never follow the crowd.

~Bernard Baruch

I'll give you the bottom 10% and the top 10% of any move if I get to keep the middle 80%.

~Bernard Baruch

Age is only a number, a cipher for the records. A man can't retire his experience. He must use it. Experience achieves more with less energy and time.

~Bernard Baruch

When good news about the market hits the front page of the New York Times, sell.

~Bernard Baruch

Never pay the slightest attention to what a company president ever says about his stock.

~Bernard Baruch

You don't have to blow out the other person's light to let your own shine.

~Bernard Baruch

Unless each man produces more than he receives, increases his output, there will be less for him than all the others.

~Bernard Baruch

Don't try to be a jack of all investments. Stick to the field you know best.

~Bernard Baruch

During my eighty-seven years I have witnessed a whole succession of technological revolutions. But none of them has done away with the need for character in the individual or the ability to think.

~Bernard Baruch

Always do one thing less than you think you can do.

~Bernard Baruch

Now is always the hardest time to invest.

~Bernard Baruch

I am interested in physical medicine because my father was. I am interested in medical research because I believe in it. I am interested in arthritis because I have it.

~Bernard Baruch

Whatever failures I have known, whatever errors I have committed, whatever follies I have witnessed in private and public life have been the consequence of action without thought.

~Bernard Baruch

All economic movements, by their very nature, are motivated by crowd psychology.

~Bernard Baruch

Creativity: Take the obvious, add a cupful of brains, a generous pinch of imagination, a bucketful of courage and daring, stir well and bring to a boil.

~Bernard Baruch

The greatest blessing of our democracy is freedom. But in the last analysis, our only freedom is the freedom to discipline ourselves.

~Bernard Baruch

A man can't retire his experience.

~Bernard Baruch

Making a success of the job at hand is the best step toward the kind you want.

~Bernard Baruch

Even when we know what is right, too often we fail to act. More often we grab greedily for the day, letting tomorrow bring what it will, putting off the unpleasant and unpopular.

~Bernard Baruch

The stock market is people.

~Bernard Baruch

We grow neither better or worse as we get old, but more like ourselves.

~Bernard Baruch

The ability to express an idea is well nigh as important as the idea itself.

~Bernard Baruch

I get the facts, I study them patiently, I apply imagination.

~Bernard Baruch

Let us not deceive ourselves; we must elect world peace or world destruction.

~Bernard Baruch

Everyone is entitled to be wrong about their opinions, but no one has the right to be wrong about their facts.

~Bernard Baruch

If you have made a mistake cut your losses as quickly as possible.

~Bernard Baruch

Be quick to praise people. People like to praise those who praise them.

~Bernard Baruch

Do not blame anybody for your mistakes and failures.

~Bernard Baruch

Buy straw hats in the wintertime. Summer will surely come.

~Bernard Baruch

If all you have is a hammer, everything looks like a nail.

~Bernard Baruch

Information cannot serve as an effective substitute for thinking.

~Bernard Baruch

Vote for the man who promises least; he'll be the least disappointing.

~Bernard Baruch

To me - old age is always ten years older than I am.

~Bernard Baruch

We can't cross that bridge until we come to it, but I always like to lay down a pontoon ahead of time.

~Bernard Baruch

Gold has worked down from Alexander's time... When something holds good for two thousand years I do not believe it can be so because of prejudice or mistaken theory.

~Bernard Baruch

I made my money by selling too soon.

~Bernard Baruch

Chance sometimes opens the door, but luck belongs to the good players.

~Bernard Baruch

Approach each new problem not with a view of finding what you hope will be there, but to get the truth.

~Bernard Baruch

I never lost money by turning a profit.

~Bernard Baruch

Never play tips from "insiders." They can't see the forest for the trees.

~Bernard Baruch

I have learned the truth of the observation that the more one approaches great men the more one finds that they are men.

~Bernard Baruch

You can overcome anything if you don't bellyache.

~Bernard Baruch

Most of the successful people I know mostly listen, not talk.

~Bernard Baruch

We are here today to make a choice between the quick and the dead.

~Bernard Baruch

No man should think himself a zero, and think he can do nothing about the state of the world.

~Bernard Baruch

There are no such things as incurables. There are only things for which man has not found a cure.

~Bernard Baruch

Don't speculate unless you can make it a full time job.

~Bernard Baruch

Whatever men attempt, they seem driven to overdo. When hopes are soaring, I always repeat to myself that two and two still make four.

~Bernard Baruch

Increased wages, higher pensions, more unemployment insurance, all are of no avail if the purchasing power of money falls faster.

~Bernard Baruch

Only as you do know yourself can your brain serve you as a sharp and efficient tool. Know your own failings, passions, and prejudices so you can separate them from what you see.

~Bernard Baruch

Bears don't live on Park Avenue.

~Bernard Baruch

Whatever you do, do it with all your heart and soul.

~Bernard Baruch

If the history of the past fifty years teaches us anything, it is that peace does not follow disarmament - disarmament follows peace.

~Bernard Baruch

When the outlook is steeped in pessimism, I remind myself, "Two and two still make four, and you can't keep humankind down for long."

~Bernard Baruch

A political leader must keep looking over his shoulder all the time to see if the boys are still there. If they aren't still there, he's no longer a political leader.

~Bernard Baruch

Although the shooting war is over, we are in the midst of a cold war which is getting warmer.

~Bernard Baruch

America has never forgotten - and never will forget - the nobler things that brought her into being and that light her path...

~Bernard Baruch

Nobody ever lost money taking a profit

~Bernard Baruch

Old books that have ceased to be of service should no more be abandoned than should old friends who have ceased to give pleasure.

~Bernard Baruch

The terror created by weaponry has never stopped men from employing them.

~Bernard Baruch

Society can progress if men's labors show a profit - if they yield more than is put in. To produce at a loss must leave less for all to share.

~Bernard Baruch

Our problem in money-making or government affairs is how to remain properly venturesome and experimental without making fools of ourselves.

~Bernard Baruch

The longer I operated on Wall Street the more distrustful I became of tips and inside information of every kind. Given time, I believe that inside information can break the Bank of England

~Bernard Baruch

Financial storm definitely passed.

~Bernard Baruch

There is something about inside information which seems to paralyze a man's reasoning powers.

~Bernard Baruch

I have known men who could see through the motivations of others with the skill of a clairvoyant; only to prove blind to their own mistakes. I have been one of those men.

~Bernard Baruch

You can't repeal human nature by an Act of Congress.
