Killing a cop just because he's a cop, that'll happen. And that should happen. And there's nothing inhuman about it at all. It's survival. It's the most human thing in the world.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I don't come from a privileged background.

~Bernardine Dohrn

Even in my most inflamed moment I never supported a racist mass murderer.

~Bernardine Dohrn

Americans love to read about violence.

~Bernardine Dohrn

The real terrorist is the American government, state terrorism unleashed against the world.

~Bernardine Dohrn

Over all, many of society's values are a cesspool.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I wish that I had bridged the feminist movement and the anti-war movement better than I did.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I was shocked at the anger toward me.

~Bernardine Dohrn

Freaks are revolutionaries, and revolutionaries are freaks

~Bernardine Dohrn

There are plenty of mothers who should not be allowed to raise their children.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I felt grand juries were illegal and coercive.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I guess I feel very strongly that I disagree with the notion of personalizing history and movements and big events.

~Bernardine Dohrn

This tendency to consider only bombings or picking up the gun as revolutionary, with the glorification of the heavier the better, we've called the military error.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I just feel that I don't agree with sensationalized versions of history or me. Any version that's sensationalized.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I think that there is a lot going on with young people today.

~Bernardine Dohrn

You're always trying to balance your understanding of who you are and what you need, and your longing and imaginings of freedom.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I think there's a mystery about what a social movement is.

~Bernardine Dohrn

The '60s are presented to kids today as a commodity.

~Bernardine Dohrn

I'm so unhappy with electoral politics that I switched to sports radio.
