If I walked on water, my accusers would say it is because I can't swim.

~Berti Vogts

Sex before the game? No problem. But I won't allow it at half-time

~Berti Vogts

Football is a game that fascinates people around the World like nothing else.

~Berti Vogts

Without a healthy team spirit you won't get anywhere in football.

~Berti Vogts

If you have team spirit you can even beat better teams. As far as team sport is concerned China might need a change in attitude in comparison to the one in table tennis.

~Berti Vogts

You need players that stand for emotion in football. Football today is a game for television.

~Berti Vogts

Success is not winning the World Cup. It may be a goal in your mind but success is having a team that is improving all the time.

~Berti Vogts

China needs a table-tennis-like solidity in football.

~Berti Vogts

First of all, it would be great for world football to have a competitive Chinese team as China traditionally has deep relation to sports in general.

~Berti Vogts

Being successful means good results for the national team at first in the regional competitions like the Asian Cup and keeping in mind to go for Gold at a World Cup in the future.

~Berti Vogts

China has great potentials; the people are hard-working and focused. But they have to close the gap as far as the pace of the game is concerned. Football in the future will get faster and faster.

~Berti Vogts

Football is my life. I guess I can't live without it.

~Berti Vogts

I think in China, they know you have to have a solid nationwide plan. It does not help to have a football hotspot in the north or the south.

~Berti Vogts

To implement a new sport aside your tradition takes time. You definitely need a strategy for the entire country. You need highly qualified coaches for all regions that work with the same concept.

~Berti Vogts

Remember I've seen a video tape of a Scotland-England match and I've seen him miss a chance from five yards. It was against England and he couldn't score. So what does that say?
