There's always that key to every character that lets you go to those places you need to go to. No matter how much you might hate the character, it makes you understand it.

~Beth Grant

I've died so many times in so many movies. What is it about my face that people want to kill it? I'm sure they would've killed Kitty Farmer if they could've!

~Beth Grant

I grew up around people, so I know 'em, and I do like playin' 'em. I'm not religious, but I am kind of a spiritual fanatic, so maybe I understand them in that way.

~Beth Grant

Sometimes I'll say, "When Sandy Bullock and I were doing Speed - the movie, not the drug." Just in case someone's listening.

~Beth Grant

I love smoking. I miss it every day of my life. If I found out that it didn't cause cancer, I would go out and buy, like, eight cartons right now.

~Beth Grant

If you just think Donnie Darkos a weird movie, you don't want to think. You don't want to feel your feelings. So yeah, I do want to shake 'em up.

~Beth Grant

Reality television, anybody can be a star at any minute.

~Beth Grant

As much as I love being an artist, I love being a mom even more.

~Beth Grant

The Coens both give you direction, and then it's up to you to kind of figure out the music of what they're saying.

~Beth Grant

At Rain Man, I was 38. And before that, I had really just started working when I was 36. I was very late. So I've got time, right? As long as I stay healthy and eat right.

~Beth Grant

I'm ready to do some classics. Maybe I wasn't in the beginning. I weighed 179 pounds when I got to New York, and I had that thick Southern accent. I still talk Southern, but I can do without it.

~Beth Grant

I built a career on my archetype, and I'm grateful, but I'm trying to stretch.
