I was always dancing and acrobatics was my specialty.

~Betsey Johnson

Girls do not dress for boys. They dress for themselves, of course, each other. If girls dressed for boys, they'd just walk around naked at all times.

~Betsey Johnson

If a girl comes to me first for a prom or a bar mitzvah and she likes the way she looks and her boyfriend likes the way she looks, she'll come back.

~Betsey Johnson

You have to hold onto your fantasy.

~Betsey Johnson

Keep your sunny side up, keep yourself beautiful, and indulge yourself!

~Betsey Johnson

Real success is being totally indulgent about your own trip. You put your blinders on about the garbage and go full speed ahead.

~Betsey Johnson

Always have fun with fashion. Dress to entertain yourself.

~Betsey Johnson

Hard times always lead to something great.

~Betsey Johnson

In the 60s there was a look. In the 70s there was a look, and in the 80s. Now, it's a free-for-all.

~Betsey Johnson

I never wanted to join fashion industry or being another Donna or another Dianne. I made clothes that I wanted to wear. I would cut, I would sew and I would wear, and it made me to feel better.

~Betsey Johnson

My customer isn't wrapped up in labels and money.

~Betsey Johnson

Love is a disease of the heart in the end, there is no treatment curable and it might just kill you.

~Betsey Johnson

A good use for me is to let me go away with my sewing machine and come back with some really new stuff.

~Betsey Johnson

I used to design for my body, which was flat-chested with big hips. That's why my clothes were tight on top with full skirts.

~Betsey Johnson

Girls don't dress for boys.

~Betsey Johnson

I'm not the type of person who dwells too much on bad things.

~Betsey Johnson

I was a cheerleader for nine years.

~Betsey Johnson

I never keep anything beautiful in the closet.

~Betsey Johnson

[In the 1960s]...you could take LSD but you couldn't wear a pantsuit.

~Betsey Johnson

With over 3 million women battling breast cancer today, everywhere you turn there is a mother, daughter, sister, or friend who has been affected by breast cancer.

~Betsey Johnson

There is an excitement about having nightmares.

~Betsey Johnson

If it hadn't been for the rise of the working woman's wardrobe, I never would have found the time to sneak a kid in.

~Betsey Johnson

It's just been so heartwarming to see my clothes on people in wheelchairs and people needing physical support.

~Betsey Johnson

At any appearance, I make sure that before the person takes a pic and runs away, that I make contact. All I can do is give that little bit of me, the kickback is miraculous.

~Betsey Johnson

I don't like to have time on my wall; it's too-in-your-face.

~Betsey Johnson

I couldn't live if I wasn't a designer.
