It's almost impossible to imagine bullfighting abolished from Spain entirely. Values do change, though.

~Bette Ford

I'm good at killing, I'm known as a bullfighter who kills well, and that I can kill well, that I can compete technically with my male peers in my technique in killing, gives me satisfaction.

~Bette Ford

You kill, it's part of your world as a bullfighter, it's a natural part of your world, and then you leave that world and it becomes unnatural.

~Bette Ford

Animals are complicated and so is the animal-rights opposition. It's hard to read motives in animals, and hard to read motives in politics.

~Bette Ford

Madrid reacting with the forceful protection of bullfighting as an art form is an example of the survival of the old values.

~Bette Ford

I was a bullfighter. I'd like to see the tradition continue. I'm sorry that Catalonia is robbing itself of a tradition that belongs in Catalonia.

~Bette Ford

If you fear something, walk into it.

~Bette Ford

Cooking certainly has some of the elements of an art form.

~Bette Ford

I never took pleasure in seeing a bull die. Relief, but certainly not pleasure.

~Bette Ford

In one era the majority puts its faith and sympathy with the bullfighter, in another with the bull.

~Bette Ford

A bull will try to outwit you. It will stop and hook when the last thing you expect from it is that it will stop and hook.
