God is not about religion. Religion is a structure that should house our faith in God. Too often it is used to hurt other people in God's name.

~Betty Eadie

Faith is not complacent; faith is action. You don't have faith and wait. When you have faith, you move.

~Betty Eadie

In our thoughts and words we create our own weaknesses and our own strengths.

~Betty Eadie

If we understood the awesome power of our words, we would prefer silence to almost anything negative.

~Betty Eadie

The more you notice the love, the miracles and the beauty around you, the more love comes into your life.

~Betty Eadie

The more we thank God for the blessings we receive, the more we open the way for further blessings.

~Betty Eadie

I understood that life is lived most fully in the imagination - that, ironically, imagination is the key to reality.

~Betty Eadie

If love is truly a verb, if help is a verb, if forgiveness is a verb, if kindness is a verb, then you can do something about it.

~Betty Eadie

God knew we would make mistakes. Life is all about mistakes. It is constant change and growth. Our greatest challenges in life will one day be known to us as our greatest teachers.

~Betty Eadie

Our limitations and joys begin in our hearts. We can always replace negative with positive.

~Betty Eadie

For all of us who listen, in the stillness of our hearts, God enlightens us and offers to lead the way.

~Betty Eadie

If we understood the power of our thoughts, we would guard them more closely.

~Betty Eadie

To become as perfect as a mortal being can become, we need to bring the mind, body, and spirit into total harmony...We must add to that harmony Christ like love and righteousness.

~Betty Eadie

Service is a balm to both the spirit and the body.
