A relativist is an individual who doesn't know the difference between an adjective and an adverb.

~Bill Gaede

Whereas a novice makes moves until he gets checkmated (proof), a Grand Master realizes 20 moves in advance that it's futile to continue playing (conceptualizing).

~Bill Gaede

Man steps on an ant when he can't catch the fly.

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician believes that describing the speed of Mercury with equations amounts to science.

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician makes plans to travel backwards in time through a wormhole to a parallel universe when he can't even make it to Mars with the fastest rocket on hand today.

~Bill Gaede

It is the definition of the word 'object' which destroys all religions.

~Bill Gaede

The mathematicians are the priests of the modern world.

~Bill Gaede

Today, the rich are the haves and the poor are the have-nots. Tomorrow, the rich will be the have-food and the poor will be the have-not food.

~Bill Gaede

'Proof' is the hallmark of religion.

~Bill Gaede

Science is not about making predictions or performing experiments.
Science is about explaining.

~Bill Gaede

For youth, sexual love is whim; for the aged, luxury.

~Bill Gaede

Define the word exist, and you'll know whether God exists.

~Bill Gaede

Extinction catches Man by surprise because no one can even imagine that such a catastrophe can happen to an intelligent species.

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician is a magician who converts adjectives into nouns: continuous into continuum, infinite into infinity, infinitesimal into location, 0D into point, 1D into line, curved into geodesic.

~Bill Gaede

Atheism is the opium of the mathematicians. Atheism is the religion of Mathematics.

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician is an individual who calls himself a 'physicist' and does 'physics' and physical experiments with abstract concepts.

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician says that an electromagnetic wave travels from Andromeda to your eye and that it also extends from Andromeda to your eye.

~Bill Gaede

If you can't illustrate 'it', 'it' doesn't belong in Physics as a noun! You can't put an article in front. You can't put a verb after!

~Bill Gaede

A mathematician is an individual who believes that prophesying that his dog will die if he deprives it of food constitutes a prediction.

~Bill Gaede

The mathematicians of this world regard themselves as 'physicists,' yet they know next to nothing about Physics.

~Bill Gaede
