There's something magical about putting yourself into life. You've got to stand up and take responsibility for your own life and you cannot abandon that.

~Bill Kurtis

The prediction that glaciers will be gone from Glacier National Park has been moved up by 10 years to 2020, the same year it's predicted the Arctic Sea will be ice-free in the summer.

~Bill Kurtis

My personal philosophy is I'm running a 100-yard dash, and I haven't reached the end.

~Bill Kurtis

The one important thing you do as boss is you set the standard. The minute you go in and say 'we'll let it go this time,' you set a new standard, which is lower. So you cannot do that.

~Bill Kurtis

I think I'm so old I'm in. We call it the 'Tony Bennett Syndrome.' For some reason, young people think I'm cool.

~Bill Kurtis

You need a very good financial person to keep you honest, and to keep track of income and outgo.

~Bill Kurtis

I never wanted to retire. I wanted to kind of shift my work pattern so I could stay fresh and invigorated, and use the experience that I had gained in 30 years, but in a slightly different direction.

~Bill Kurtis

If you're a producer, you always spend too much money because you want that shot - and you're willing to spend a bundle to get it.

~Bill Kurtis

Why die on Mars when you can live in South Dakota? South Dakota, you can live here.

~Bill Kurtis

'Frontline' does 10 news shows a year, so one a week is quite an undertaking.

~Bill Kurtis

In L.A., everyone is competing for the next job, and in New York, it's pretty much the same thing: competing for a better job.

~Bill Kurtis

There's room for a diversity of ages on television.

~Bill Kurtis

Movie stars and singers never fully pass away because their images are replayed on film and recordings, over and over.

~Bill Kurtis

People from small towns have to have their edges roughed up to get along in the world. But as a street reporter, you learn quickly.

~Bill Kurtis

I've been producing documentaries on global warming for 20 years and have seen the early warnings of extreme weather events come true.

~Bill Kurtis

On my football field, I know what bliss is. My team cuddles more than the missus. We won't inject drugs, just oodles of hugs. I warm up my team with some kisses.

~Bill Kurtis

I travel so much on stories, so I don't take vacation much, but one place I go back to again and again is my ranch.

~Bill Kurtis

I'd like 'Morning News' to become a great first edition electronic newspaper, so that the 'New York Times' will want to watch us.

~Bill Kurtis

The most frightening interview I've ever done was with Dr. Lonnie Thompson of The Ohio State University on the subject of global warming.

~Bill Kurtis

I think there's value in experience and observations that link past to present.

~Bill Kurtis

Politics is still the No. 1 sport in town and the scoreboard shows the U.S. attorney's office leading.

~Bill Kurtis

That's the reason I left the networks. I wanted to write and report and coanchor.

~Bill Kurtis

All vacations can come down to a few little moments - what do you remember when you're alone, totally relaxed and taken out of yourself to appreciate this other world.

~Bill Kurtis

I believe that young people are looking for answers to the big questions just like everyone else, and that they respect intelligent comment to help guide them through tough times.

~Bill Kurtis

I have an affinity for Africa, especially East Africa, and Kansas looks very much like that.
