I would like to thank the people who encouraged me to draw army cartoons at a time when the gag man's conception of the army was one of mean ole sergeants and jeeps which jump over mountains.

~Bill Mauldin

Look at an infantryman's eyes and you can tell how much war he has seen.

~Bill Mauldin

I'm convinced that the infantry is the group in the army which gives more and gets less than anybody else.

~Bill Mauldin

Humor is really laughing off a hurt, grinning at misery.

~Bill Mauldin

I was a born troublemaker and might as well earn a living at it.

~Bill Mauldin

The surest way to become a pacifist is to join the infantry.

~Bill Mauldin

I feel like a fugitive from the law of averages.

~Bill Mauldin

If you're a leader, you don't push wet spaghetti, you pull it.

~Bill Mauldin

When we realize finally that we aren't God's given children, we'll understand satire. Humor is really laughing off a hurt, grinning at misery.

~Bill Mauldin

'Peace' is when nobody's shooting. A 'just peace' is when our side gets what it wants.

~Bill Mauldin

Certainly none of the advances made in civilization has been due to counterrevolutionaries and advocates of the status quo.
