I have a medical condition, all right. It's called caring too much, and it's incurable. Also, I have eczema.

~Billy Eichner

I can tell when somebody recognizes me, and I try to avoid those people.

~Billy Eichner

For some reasons, I have WWE wrestlers tweeting me all the time. Like, my biggest fans. Why they can connect with my love for Meryl Streep, I don't know.

~Billy Eichner

If you really think you have something good, you can't take no for an answer. You've got to get in there and ignore the people who say no.

~Billy Eichner

My father and I were really like a team. I mean, he was very supportive. He'd come to every single one of my live shows.

~Billy Eichner

I've had a lot of arguments with people, but it's never really gotten physical.

~Billy Eichner

I'm not a big reality show fan, because I just think it's too fake.

~Billy Eichner

Ironically, my rabbi was a bar mitzvah Nazi. So I got bar mitzvahed.

And though I didn't want to, the theme of my bar mitzvah party was Madonna.

~Billy Eichner

Hotmail just picked up 12 new episodes of 'Judging Amy'.

~Billy Eichner

I couldn't just get up every day and be miserable and complain.

~Billy Eichner

Difficult People? I don't really know. I don't have those metrics.

~Billy Eichner

I like talking to a person who is crazy in a fun, eccentric way. I don't want to talk to a legitimate crazy person, because that's not nice.

~Billy Eichner

I'm not much of a dancer.

~Billy Eichner

I had a lot of fans in New York. The press would write about me, but I couldn't get a paying job.

~Billy Eichner

I started out as a very traditional actor. The first thing I ever did in terms of performance was singing.

~Billy Eichner

When I opened my mouth to sing as a kid, I kind of randomly had a really good singing voice. And so that put me on the actor track and the musicals track.

~Billy Eichner

We weren't rich people, but my parents and I shared an interest in the theater and so we went a lot. And that definitely inspired me.

~Billy Eichner

I never fully committed to the child actor thing. I also liked being a regular kid and being a student.

~Billy Eichner

You have to fight. You know, you don't want to fight, but you have to fight to make your show your own, to make your voice be heard. You just have to sometimes.

~Billy Eichner

It's one thing to be struggling and not really making money in your early 20s and figuring out your life. Early 30s, you start to wonder, is this ever going to happen?

~Billy Eichner

I am invisible in gay bars.

~Billy Eichner

If you're just really loud, people just want - will give you what you want just to get you to shut up.

~Billy Eichner

I think New Yorkers - they're media savvy. People have a sense of humor.

~Billy Eichner

If someone walks away from me, I just let them walk, and I move on to the next person.

~Billy Eichner

The camera guys can't mess up. God bless them, they hardly ever do. But they literally don't know what's going to happen next. None of us do. And it all has to come together and be funny.

~Billy Eichner

I'd be doing Oscar predictions months ahead of time, and not only for the Oscars, for the Grammys. This is just what excited me as a kid.

~Billy Eichner

I have a very vivid memory.

~Billy Eichner

Award shows are fun, but completely arbitrary and absurd. And yet, I will watch every single one of them.

~Billy Eichner

I thought I was going to be like Kevin Spacey in college.

~Billy Eichner

I would not have a career without Facebook and Twitter. That's the truth.

~Billy Eichner

There have been man-on-the-street interviews for years, but insulting people is not that funny to me.

~Billy Eichner

Every actor-performer says this, and it sounds so irritating, but I'm not the most outgoing person.

~Billy Eichner

Facebook is weird. They have all of these seemingly random rules that I'm sure make sense to them, but don't make sense to me or any people.
