We came off the road of the last tour very inspired to just keep playing, so we went to Canada.

~Billy Sherwood

You know, I am just a musician and I have no idea these days what good and bad is in terms of labels.

~Billy Sherwood

I've had the luxury of owning my own studio, 24 analogue, 48 digital, endless effects, endless hardcore gear, that I don't have to rent, I don't get stuck with the bills, it's all mine.

~Billy Sherwood

I love the feeling of creating pictures in someone's mind just by spelling out the right lyrical combination.

~Billy Sherwood

I mean, Beatles songs were two and a half minutes long, and they're fantastic.

~Billy Sherwood

So for my studio purposes, I know that I'm in my studio with technicians who've done amazing things to my board and to my power amps and I know what I can deliver out of my studio.

~Billy Sherwood

I dont have any assistants, I do it all myself, I dont have any secretaries.

~Billy Sherwood

So when bands work with me and it's 10 o'clock, usually you'd have to be getting out of the studio, we could go on until 2 in the morning cause it's my place!

~Billy Sherwood

So I was always around music and my dad was in his own way a progressive jazzer, a big band jazzer guy.

~Billy Sherwood

Sometimes I hear a drum groove in my head and I rush down to my studio.

~Billy Sherwood

I grew up in a very musical family, my father was a musician and a big band leader and made records.

~Billy Sherwood

So one can say that I write all the time, that goes for the lyrics as well.

~Billy Sherwood

So whenever I had some in-between producing time down in my studio I popped a tape in and started working on it. Working a little bit at a time, it actually took almost four years.

~Billy Sherwood

You have to let your music be true and then people who want to adopt it as that, they take it on and they love it, and it changes their world.

~Billy Sherwood

Yes was without a singer at that point, cause they were doing ABWH, so you had ABWH, and then you had the 90125 band without a singer.

~Billy Sherwood

I'd written songs with lots of people, from one spectrum to the other.

~Billy Sherwood

I also write poems, so that is something that I really enjoy.

~Billy Sherwood

I love all Yes music and love to play it live, but I'm most interested in making new music with Yes.

~Billy Sherwood

Don't pay attention to what anyone is telling you about your personal journey just keep going, because that's what it's all about.

~Billy Sherwood

I have always enjoyed different kinds of music.
