

Biz Stone Quotes

People, Thinking, Creativity, Ideas, Running, Writing, Design, Mean, Two, Real, Simple, Firsts, New York, Technology, Creative, Phones, Way, News, College, Renewable Resources

Timing, perseverance, and ten years of trying will eventually make you look like an overnight success.

~Biz Stone

Have confidence in your ideas before they even exist.

~Biz Stone

In order to succeed spectacularly you have to be willing to fail spectacularly.

~Biz Stone

Creativity is an infinitely renewable resource - you are not going to run out of it - so don't be afraid to use it.

~Biz Stone

Constraint inspires creativity

~Biz Stone

Inventing your dream is the first and biggest step toward making it come true.

~Biz Stone

I realized creativity is a renewable resource. You never run out of good ideas

~Biz Stone

Willingness to take risks is the path to success.

~Biz Stone

Understand that you don't have all the answers, you just have to start somewhere and keep an open mind.

~Biz Stone

At Twitter, mobile is in our DNA ... For us, it's all about mobile, and it always has been.

~Biz Stone

The two things I use the most are the MacBook Air and my iPhone. Those are my two most-used gadgets that are dented, scratched and smashed.

~Biz Stone

Positive culture comes from being mindful, and respecting your coworkers, and being empathetic.

~Biz Stone

Success isn't guaranteed, but failure is certain if you aren't truly emotionally invested in your work.

~Biz Stone

Creativity comes from constraint.

~Biz Stone

I thought I was going to stay at Google, because it was a great place to work.

~Biz Stone

Even though running is physically straining, it's mentally refreshing. Especially when you feel like you've accomplished something.

~Biz Stone

The determination that led me to create a new sports team taught me an important lesson: opportunity is manufactured.

~Biz Stone

I mean, even when it's really simple, there's so much amazing beautiful creativity that can come out of that.

~Biz Stone

Creativity is a renewable resource.

~Biz Stone

People first. Technology second.

~Biz Stone

Investors are employees you can never hire. We made sure to pick investors that thought like us.

~Biz Stone

Embrace your constraints. They are provocative. They are challenging. They wake you up. They make you more creative. They make you better.

~Biz Stone

The future of marketing is philanthropy.

~Biz Stone

Design is a career where you learn creative decision making.

~Biz Stone

When you hand good people possibility, they do great things.

~Biz Stone

Even the simplest tools can empower people to do great things.

~Biz Stone

The thing that excites me, and the thing that excited me about Twitter, is the idea of a flock of birds moving around an object in flight.

~Biz Stone

We can figure it out, it's not like we all have a disease.

~Biz Stone

I've seen people twitter in haiku only.

~Biz Stone

There's no such thing as a superhero, but together we can world in a new direction.

~Biz Stone

I don't think of Twitter as a social network. I think of it as a messaging system that has a lot of social components to it.

~Biz Stone

I think Twitter has brought something totally new to the table.

~Biz Stone

I think we definitely want to focus on the simplicity aspect because it's something that's built into the culture even here at Twitter. Constraints inspire creativity.

~Biz Stone

Twitter provides a great amount of timely information, but we still need those people to fill out the rest of the story and the context.

~Biz Stone

I started out as an artist, and I continue to think of myself as an artist first, and a technologist and entrepreneur after that.

~Biz Stone

In any leadership position, you're always going to be disappointing somebody.

~Biz Stone

Both my wife and I have a lot of compassion for animals in general.

~Biz Stone

I never even graduated college. I never finished learning, as it were, and I have a psychological need to be in a learning environment at all times.

~Biz Stone

A personal belief is that if you're not personally invested in what you're working on, you'll fail.

~Biz Stone

You can shut down a service, and yet people will find ways to communicate.

~Biz Stone

I haven't been paying attention to politics long enough to have really smart opinions.

~Biz Stone

The normal press cycle is to put a company on a pedestal and then knock it down. It's much more interesting that way.

~Biz Stone

We hired a CSR person at Twitter, years before we hired our first sales person, to make sure we had a culture and impact of doing good.

~Biz Stone

Embrace your constraints.

~Biz Stone

When I studied graphic design, I learned a valuable lesson: There's no perfect answer to the puzzle, and creativity is a renewable resource.

~Biz Stone

You have to have an emotional investment in what you're doing. If you don't love what you're doing, failure is pretty much guaranteed.

~Biz Stone

The reason I really started running was for meditative purposes. I would pick some problem to have in my head while running.

~Biz Stone

With Twitter, it's as easy to unfollow as it is to follow.

~Biz Stone

It's important to credit the brave people that take chances to stand up to regimes. They're the star.

~Biz Stone

If people are passionate about your product, whether it's because they're hating or loving it, those are both good scenarios.

~Biz Stone

When a plane lands in the Hudson and there's a Twitter user on the ferry taking a picture of it, Boom. That's it. The water is still splashing. Here's the photo of the thing.

~Biz Stone

A Twitter update is simple and fast and gets the information and news, and it spreads it very quickly, and it can contain links so you can then link to this whole context of information.

~Biz Stone

We can break news really fast. When an earthquake happens, there are people Twittering about it.

~Biz Stone

I'm curious about writing in the age of online publishing. Because nobody cares about good writing online.

~Biz Stone

I knew Mac pretty well. I'd used them when I was younger.

~Biz Stone

I'd dropped out of college to start design thing.

~Biz Stone

There's a lot of social input when you put these things out there. People's ideas cross with other people's thoughts.

~Biz Stone

We did Twitter, and Twitter grew so fast, and in 2006 we spun it out into Twitter, Inc.

~Biz Stone

I was writing and developing software for alumnae to be able to connect and communicate.

~Biz Stone

If you make the opportunity, you'll be the first in the position to take advantage of it.

~Biz Stone

Doing startups is all about making mistakes.

~Biz Stone

We didn't have anything before Twitter that allowed a group of people roaming around a city to communicate instantly, in real time, and in a coordinated way, in a group.

~Biz Stone

Related Links:

- People Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Creativity Quotes
- Ideas Quotes
- Running Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Design Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Two Quotes
- Real Quotes
- Simple Quotes
- Firsts Quotes
- New York Quotes
- Technology Quotes
- Creative Quotes
- Phones Quotes
- Way Quotes
- News Quotes
- College Quotes
- Renewable Resources Quotes