Right and wrong becomes more difficult for each of us as we grow older, because the older we get the more we know personally about our own human frailties.

~Blanche Lincoln

Stopping crime before it occurs is the most effective crime fighting tool of all.

~Blanche Lincoln

Improving our national intelligence capabilities should remain a top priority and a continual process.

~Blanche Lincoln

A common misconception is that the costs of health care are cheaper in rural America, when in fact the reality is that they are more expensive and more difficult to access.

~Blanche Lincoln

I am not normally a betting person, but I say that putting your money on the American people is about as close to a sure bet as you are going to get.

~Blanche Lincoln

It's not my job to dream your dreams. It's my job to make your dreams become a reality.

~Blanche Lincoln

It certainly makes no sense to enact more laws if we cannot, or do not, enforce the ones we have.

~Blanche Lincoln

We still have tremendous work ahead of us to ensure that women have equal opportunities in the workplace and in our society.

~Blanche Lincoln

Unless we make education a priority, an entire generation of Americans could miss out on the American dream.

~Blanche Lincoln

Now, I do come from a part of the country where the people say that the only thing in the middle of the road is a yellow line or roadkill.

~Blanche Lincoln

If we invest in the American people, the American people always bring this Nation a good return.
