I think it has a lot to do with determination. I treat people the way I want to be treated and believe if you work hard you can have the things you want in life.

~Bo Bice

I didn't have a lot to do with the first record.

~Bo Bice

I picked and co-wrote the songs that if I was a guy who would be spending my hard-earned money buying an album I would want to hear.

~Bo Bice

I was so happy and content with in life playing music. Music was always my first job and my day gig was my second job.

~Bo Bice

I'd like to expand on doing what I love and venture out a bit more. I would like to play consistantly good music. Eventually someday I would like to open up a school and teach kids about music.

~Bo Bice

I think I started lip-synching about halfway through the first day, and it's not as easy as you think it would be. But it's definitely better than a day job.

~Bo Bice

I think America did a great job. I think Carrie Underwood fits the bill of American Idol. She's a wonderful girl, and she's gonna have a great career.

~Bo Bice

But whatever the Lord throws at me right now, I think I've been given more blessings than I ever deserved. If he wants to top it off with anything - boy, girl - I would love either of them.

~Bo Bice

Just practice hard and stay grounded. Treat people like you want to be treated and work hard.

~Bo Bice

It's not just about waking up and trying to be a star... It's practice, practice, practice.

~Bo Bice

I try to be a better dad and husband than I do pretend rock star.

~Bo Bice

My lifes a wreck, and I love it.

~Bo Bice

Yeah, playing anywhere from three to five gigs a week definitely [helped]. I think all the practice throughout the years and doing what I do paid off.
