It's not a gun control problem; it's a cultural control problem.

~Bob Barr

It is difficult, if not impossible, to argue that laws written in the 1970s are adequate for today's intelligence challenges.

~Bob Barr

Looking down the road, space exploration and the benefits it yields - in medicine and information technology - should not be overlooked.

~Bob Barr

It is high time for some congressional oversight backbone.

~Bob Barr

The Constitution never even mentions political parties, let alone the Republican and Democratic parties, yet all the election laws help to protect them from competition.

~Bob Barr

History has shown that Big Government expands quickest in the immediate aftermath of a crisis - real or manufactured.

~Bob Barr

Whether it's a sitting president when I was an impeachment manager, or a Republican president who has taken liberties with adherence to the law, to me the standard is the same.

~Bob Barr

There is no legitimate use whatsoever for marijuana. This is not medicine. This is bogus witchcraft. It has no place in medicine, no place in pain relief.

~Bob Barr

The Libertarian Party is a very mainstream party. It's a mainstream philosophy. It's of returning power from Washington to parents, to schools, to businesses in their communities.

~Bob Barr

The Tea Party knows that continuing to delay charting a course to spending reform hurts everybody.

~Bob Barr

The backlash against Big Government is an encouraging sign of a growing resistance to the mission creep of federal power.

~Bob Barr

For far too long the American public and business sector have kept their silence as civil liberties have been whittled away by statutory and regulatory measures.

~Bob Barr

Far too many people have been swept into the post-9/11 system of fear that is the basis of all public policy these days.

~Bob Barr

I'm pro-life but I believe that the federal government ought to stay out of it. That's a decision that the people of each state ought to make for themselves.

~Bob Barr

Widespread use of online voting will create the potential for abuse that will make the problems inherent in e-voting pale in comparison.

~Bob Barr

On taking office, Obama promised the 'most transparent' administration in history; yet his record as president has been anything but transparent.

~Bob Barr

Firearms manufacturers usually find themselves playing defense.

~Bob Barr

Accepting federal funding undermines state sovereignty as states become beholden to federal requirements in order to keep the money flowing.

~Bob Barr

People come up to me and tell me they support me because I never left my principles.

~Bob Barr

The world is undoubtedly a safer, freer place because Thatcher - like Reagan - refused to back down when it came to defending freedom.

~Bob Barr

For decades, parents were told by so-called parenting 'experts' that offspring would be best raised on the belief each is special and entitled to all life has to offer.

~Bob Barr

Let us not rush into a vast expansion of government power in a misguided attempt to protect freedom. In doing so, we will inevitably erode the very freedom we seek to protect.

~Bob Barr

The 2011 riots in England, which left five dead and caused more than $300 million in property damage, were fueled by a generation of young Brits who grew up without ever hearing the word No.

~Bob Barr

I supported the Iraq resolution, but that was not an approval of war in Iraq and certainly was not approval for an occupation of Iraq.

~Bob Barr

The main international problem facing America is our lack of - our loss of influence in the world and our lack of an ability to define what U.S. interests really are.

~Bob Barr

The goal in Afghanistan is to find the terrorists and take them out.
