We discussed politics, but we also talked about the importance of hard work, personal responsibility, living within your means, keeping your word. Those lessons stay with you throughout your life.

~Bob Ehrlich

Some of the most important conversations I've ever had occurred at my family's dinner table.

~Bob Ehrlich

Politics is a contest among people of diverse backgrounds and philosophies, advocating different solutions to common problems. The system only works when principled, energetic people participate.

~Bob Ehrlich

I don't know what leadership is. You can't touch it. You can't feel it. It's not tangible. But I do know this: you recognize it when you see it.

~Bob Ehrlich

It's appropriate to celebrate public service, and the thoughtful people who choose to serve. They symbolize what is good and decent about this historic citizen legislature, and we thank them.

~Bob Ehrlich

Serving in Congress has been the honor of a lifetime.

~Bob Ehrlich

We have no more fundamental obligation in government than to ensure the safety of our citizens.

~Bob Ehrlich

Leadership is about doing what you know is right - even when a growing din of voices around you is trying to convince you to accept what you know to be wrong.

~Bob Ehrlich

Thoughtful people of different political philosophies can disagree, but in a very agreeable manner.

~Bob Ehrlich

I support stem cell research, including embryonic stem cell research.

~Bob Ehrlich

I generally believe in polls. Scientific polls are accurate.

~Bob Ehrlich

Leaders do not sway with the polls. Instead, they sway the polls through their own words and actions.

~Bob Ehrlich

I don't pay any attention to what the Baltimore Sun editorial page says about anything.

~Bob Ehrlich

I'm a competitive person.
