The beauty of coaching is that you are working with human beings. I feel very comfortable with my staff that we can make a difference, that we can make a difference on the ice.

~Bob Hartley

I wish that we could tumble them in the dryer for 30 minutes and get them to shrink, but that won't happen.

~Bob Hartley

You can't go to the pharmacy to buy a pack of experience, you have to be in those games in order to acquire that experience.

~Bob Hartley

I have always felt very fortunate to be have good people. You know, talent will carry you for so far but the values of the people around that should make the difference.

~Bob Hartley

Sometimes you have to go outside your boundaries. You have to jump over that fence, but I always felt very comfortable (in my jobs) because I worked with some good people.

~Bob Hartley

Personally I don't believe in standing on the ice, or jamming the blueline, waiting. I have always told my players that hockey has to be played on your toes.

~Bob Hartley

I have always trusted my instincts, I took some bold decisions in my life.....many people may say they were crazy risks.

~Bob Hartley

Books were not looked upon as things unobtainable due to economic circumstances or class status. My grandfather stole an entire set of Dicken's from the local library.
