

Bob Riley

Quotes

Children, Change, Government, Believe, School, Military, Fighting, Jobs, Men, Opportunity, Differences, Sacrifice, People, Country, Evil, Education Is Important, Domestic Violence, Ambition, Important, Effort

I ask you: turn a deaf ear to the special interests. Let politics stand down for a while. don't waste anytime thinking about future elections until we've done our jobs here.

~Bob Riley

Ladies and gentlemen: There can be no greater investment in Alabama's future than an investment in education.

~Bob Riley

Hard times don't create heroes. It is during the hard times when the "hero" within us is revealed.

~Bob Riley

I have long believed that sacrifice is the pinnacle of patriotism.

~Bob Riley

For too long, we have focused on our differences - in our politics and backgrounds, in our race and beliefs - rather than cherishing the unity and pride that binds us together.

~Bob Riley

Perseverance is a virtue that cannot be understated.

~Bob Riley

According to our Christian ethics, we're supposed to love God, love each other and help take care of the poor. It is immoral to charge somebody making $5,000 an income tax.

~Bob Riley

Drugs are the enemies of ambition and hope - and when we fight against drugs we are fighting for the future.

~Bob Riley

The fight for reform comes down to a simple goal: giving our citizens

the confidence that government serves the people first and the people only.

~Bob Riley

Tolerating evil leads only to more evil. And when good people stand by and do nothing while wickedness reigns, their communities will be consumed.

~Bob Riley

If we are going to save this country, if we are going to reestablish that belief in God, it's up to us. If we don't do it, who will?

~Bob Riley

One person can make a difference. In fact, its not only possible for one person to make a difference, its essential that one person makes a difference. And believe it or not, that person is you.

~Bob Riley

The opponents of my budget propose taking $200 million out of our classrooms and instead spending it on a larger school employee pay raise. Our focus should be on making sure our children come first.

~Bob Riley

The men and women who serve in our military have won for us every hour we live in freedom, sometimes at the expense of the very hours of the lifetimes they had hoped to live.

~Bob Riley

The success of our economy shouldn't determine the success of our schools

~Bob Riley

The amount of money we spend on education is important, but not nearly as important as how the money is spent.

~Bob Riley

If my house is on fire, I don't need the fire chief telling me I should not have built the house out of wood. I need somebody to put the fire out.

~Bob Riley

Half a world away nations that once lived under oppression and tyranny are now budding democracies due in large part to America 's leadership and the sacrifices of our military.

~Bob Riley

No skill shapes a child's future success in school or in life more than the ability to read.

~Bob Riley

Victims of domestic violence need assistance and deserve justice, I commend the crime unit's efforts to put offenders behind bars and reach out to victims.

~Bob Riley

We must now view our problems as opportunities - historic opportunities to change the failed systems of the past and do what's right for our future.

~Bob Riley

You elected government officials to make decisions and it's about time they started making good ones

~Bob Riley

When money follows results - we will get more results for our money

~Bob Riley

Government does not create jobs. It only helps create the conditions that make jobs more or less likely.

~Bob Riley

Related Links:

- Children Quotes
- Change Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- School Quotes
- Military Quotes
- Fighting Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Opportunity Quotes
- Differences Quotes
- Sacrifice Quotes
- People Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Evil Quotes
- Education Is Important Quotes
- Domestic Violence Quotes
- Ambition Quotes
- Important Quotes
- Effort Quotes