Don't go to the grave with life unused.

~Bobby Bowden

That boy don't know the meaning of the word fear. In fact, I just saw his grades, and that boy don't know the meaning of a lot of words.

~Bobby Bowden

Discipline to me is sacrifice; it's willingness to give up something you want to do, so you can better yourself.

~Bobby Bowden

The greatest mistake is to continue to practice a mistake.

~Bobby Bowden

Integrity makes my job easier. It's deception and dishonesty that requires so much diligent effort.

~Bobby Bowden

If short hair and good manners won football games, Army and Navy would play for the national championship every year.

~Bobby Bowden

When I go after something, I go after it hard. It has always been that way. I don't know. It's in my blood.

~Bobby Bowden

To have the kind of year you want to have, something has to happen that you can't explain why it happened. Something has to happen that you can't coach.

~Bobby Bowden

Son, you've got a good engine, but your hands aren't on the steering wheel.

~Bobby Bowden

I'm not too proud to change. I like to win too much.

~Bobby Bowden

If somebody mistreats you, treat'em good. That kills'em.

~Bobby Bowden

I learned more from the mistakes than from the good things.

~Bobby Bowden

Courage is doing something you need to do that might get you hurt.

~Bobby Bowden

He who gets the best players usually wins.

~Bobby Bowden

I am not happy with moral victories. Those things are forgotten.

~Bobby Bowden

If their IQ's where five points lower they'd be geraniums.

~Bobby Bowden

I suppose I'm like most coaches now, standing on the sideline hoping somebody asks them a question.

~Bobby Bowden

After you retire, there's only one big event left....and I ain't ready for that.

~Bobby Bowden

I'm praying for a misdemeanor

~Bobby Bowden

There's only about 6 inches that turns that halo into a noose.

~Bobby Bowden

Something has to happen that you can't coach.

~Bobby Bowden

Sportsmanship to me is going out and playing as hard as you can within the rules.

~Bobby Bowden

I've always said it takes more courage to stand back there and throw a ball knowing you're fixing to get drilled than anything I can think of in football.

~Bobby Bowden

Somehow, I went from being too young, to being too old. Somewhere in there I must have been just right.

~Bobby Bowden

A better ending could not have been scripted. Of course, if we had won, that would have been better.

~Bobby Bowden

I guess I'll retire someday if I live that long.
