

Bobby Orr Quotes

*Sports, Hockey, Kids, Player, Ice, Fun, Games, Team, Helping, Realizing,
People, Teaching, Athlete, Nhl, Motivational, Play, Success, Thinking, Growing
Up, Want*

You don't win by being good. You win with hard work and sacrifice. Without that, skill is just potential.

~Bobby Orr

Forget about style; worry about results.

~Bobby Orr

You never know how a single interaction with a person might affect their life, so you must constantly try to be at your best.

~Bobby Orr

Blood, sweat, tears. No practice tomorrow 'cause there's no one left to beat.

~Bobby Orr

Hockey is a tough game.

~Bobby Orr

When you're young, you don't realize the sacrifices that people are making for you.

~Bobby Orr

I couldn't wait to get on the ice. I couldn't wait to get to practice. As a kid I couldn't wait to shoot pucks or play in parking lots, or play on the river or play on the bay.

~Bobby Orr

Everyone should have the same opportunity, and in many areas that's not the case because programs are built around the elite.

~Bobby Orr

There are no environments where you're only going to win, because life just isn't like that.

~Bobby Orr

Minor sports in the community is fun and recreation for everyone, not just the elite. I think back to my days in minor hockey and those are my fondest memories, having fun.

~Bobby Orr

Developing better people should be the number one goal for any coach when dealing with kids. In trying to develop better people, we are going to develop more and better pros.

~Bobby Orr

On sheer ability, Mario is good enough to win scoring titles with a broken stick. On pure talent, he's the best there is. But Wayne almost never disappoints you. He comes to work every night.

~Bobby Orr

We're professional athletes. People know who we are, and if there's some way we can help with a friend or someone in need, that's a responsibility we have. I really strongly believe that.

~Bobby Orr

If you're going to help somebody, sneak in, sneak out, do what you can. I just sneak along and do my thing and meet wonderful people, some people I've never met, new friends.

~Bobby Orr

My Dad was my biggest supporter. He never put pressure on me.

~Bobby Orr

I'm really no different than anybody else; except that sometimes I get my name in the paper.

~Bobby Orr

We've got to do a better job with our kids. Teach good values, teach the fundamentals.

~Bobby Orr

Staying out of the penalty box will really help.

~Bobby Orr

I was the happiest guy in the world when I was on the ice. You're being paid to play a game! That's pretty special.

~Bobby Orr

If a player is trying to intimidate a skilled player on your team, what do we want? We want our skilled players playing, so we shouldn't be doing that.

~Bobby Orr

I didn't want to do a book just to do a book. I wanted to do a book that, if you should read it, you might take one thing from it. Until that was clear in my mind, I wasn't going to do one.

~Bobby Orr

I was an offensive defenseman. I was up the ice as much as I was back.

~Bobby Orr

So many of today's programs are about trophies and jackets, and we think that's a big mistake.

~Bobby Orr

I never looked at hockey as work. Now that I'd finished playing, I had to go to work.

~Bobby Orr

We're going to have more kids playing, and we're going to have a better chance of finding those players. Minor sports in a community is for fun and recreation. For everyone.

~Bobby Orr

I always tell Bobby he was up in the air so so long that I had had time to shower and change before he hit the ice.

~Bobby Orr

You hear peewee coaches teaching the 'trap'. What the heck are we doing teaching the 'trap'? Let the kids go, let them have fun; that's how you improve.

~Bobby Orr

Growing up in Canada, most kids from Canada dream of playing in the NHL, and they also hope one day to be on a Stanley Cup team. That was a big goal.

~Bobby Orr

I'm a terrible dancer! Oh, I'm an awful dancer!

~Bobby Orr

Sidney Crosby, our greatest player, I don't want to see Sidney Crosby in the penalty box. I don't want to see Sidney Crosby hurt. I want to see Sidney Crosby play.

~Bobby Orr

I don't spend a lot of time here in New York. I didn't realize there were so many Bruins fans in New York.

~Bobby Orr

Once you turn pro and you're making the big money and kids are buying your sneakers and your skates and your gloves and so on, you are a member of that role model club.

~Bobby Orr

If you talk to most athletes, the place you're most comfortable is your playing field. I'm not so comfortable at a podium or talking about events.

~Bobby Orr

Related Links:

- Sports Quotes
- Hockey Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Player Quotes
- Ice Quotes
- Fun Quotes
- Games Quotes
- Team Quotes
- Helping Quotes
- Realizing Quotes
- People Quotes
- Teaching Quotes
- Athlete Quotes
- Nhl Quotes
- Motivational Quotes
- Play Quotes
- Success Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Growing Up Quotes
- Want Quotes