In racing, I wanted to be a winner and to be a winner, you have to be willing to roll the dice.

~Bobby Rahal

My son is racing his first 24-hour this year with Porsche.

~Bobby Rahal

I'd rather try and fail than not try at all, as they say

~Bobby Rahal

Competitiveness has been a big thing for me.

~Bobby Rahal

Obviously it's critical that the three cars are able to contribute to the program. I think that certainly has given much of the reason as to why we did so well at Indy over the last several years.

~Bobby Rahal

Being injured is something that happens in this sport. Anybody who gets into it understands that.

~Bobby Rahal

What's really hit me over the years is that you go to every race and see all the well-wishers, and you really feel like you are connected with people after all these years.

~Bobby Rahal

There's a tremendous number of the Daytona Prototypes.

~Bobby Rahal

In 1982 when I showed up, the average age of the drivers in the series was something like 40, 41. The crowds were small. There was not much prize money. The competition wasn't very tight.

~Bobby Rahal

I'd seen people overstay their welcome and I didn't want that to happen at all.

~Bobby Rahal

I have never had problems sleeping the night before a race.

~Bobby Rahal

I don't want people to remember me going through the motions.

~Bobby Rahal

The place where I had so much success as a driver would be where I had my first win as a team owner.

~Bobby Rahal

I guess it is the sense of personal satisfaction that racing gives you that I am probably going to miss, because in racing you get that feedback very quickly

~Bobby Rahal

The fans know that I have been giving it my all and that we had the good judgment to when to say when.

~Bobby Rahal

We ran three cars last year. Unfortunately, as time went on, we did have to let a few people go, which we regretted, but just because of the situation.
