We must stop concentrating on our differences and focus on what we have in common. Then we can realize our full potential and achieve the greatest good in the world.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Living the gospel and standing in holy places is not always easy, but I testify that it is worth it.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

We just need to relax and rejoice in our divine differences. We need to realize that we all desire to serve in the kingdom, using our unique talents and gifts in our own ways.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

True conversion occurs as you continue to act upon the doctrines you know are true and keep the commandments, day after day, month after month.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Let us defend the home as a place which is second only to the temple in holiness.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

There is no age barrier when it comes to Christlike service.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Let us help build the kingdom of God by standing up boldly and being defenders of marriage, parenthood, and the home.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

As you keep moving forward, you can stay upright even when outside forces try to pull you down.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Each of us is equally valued in the eyes of the Lord.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Regardless of our individual circumstances, we can all enjoy the full blessings of priesthood power through keeping the covenants we have made at baptism and in the temple.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

We simply cannot call ourselves Christian and continue to judge one another - or ourselves - so harshly.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

We must stop concentrating on our differences and look for what we have in common.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

Conversion comes as we live pure and virtuous lives and enjoy the companionship of the Holy Ghost.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

What a great privilege it is to be here

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

The love of God has been described as the highest, noblest, strongest kind of love and the most joyous to the soul.

~Bonnie L. Oscarson

The spirit of Christmas is Christlike love.
