I think what it is a condition of human - of love. How important that is and integral that is too everybody even a ghost.

~Boti Bliss

I think the universal theme would be love and relationships and how if you really want to live and be alive that that's proven through the amount of love you give and receive.

~Boti Bliss

I guess I really enjoy movies that have to do with human conditions and maybe based a little bit more in reality, so I think I would say romance.

If you are going to ask me what I watch on TV, I would probably have to say the majority of it is stuff on SyFy or Discovery Channel or it's about ghost seekers.

~Boti Bliss

It's all kind of just all of us coming together and all lending a hand on what we think will make it a good movie.

~Boti Bliss

I am a huge fan of Jessica Lange. I think her performance in Grey Gardens is amazing.

~Boti Bliss

In the '60s and '70s people were a little bit more naive and trusting and got in people's cars without thinking about it.

~Boti Bliss

Now we know more about it and we teach our children not to get into cars with strangers but back then it was you know people didn't really use to that mentality yet.

~Boti Bliss

Michael Riley Burke who played [Ted] Bundy did a really good job. He does look like him too, so it does make it hard and there are aspects of it, of course, that are just terrifying.

~Boti Bliss

I am a huge fan of Gena Rowlands. I love that she is still working and always in something fresh and new.

~Boti Bliss

I think that Jerry Bruckheimer just kind of has his finger on the pulse of what America wants.

~Boti Bliss

You'll have a large amount of people going into DNA.

~Boti Bliss

We have people who were actually CSIs on set [CSI: Miami], so definitely I have learned a lot just having them around.
