I think this society suffers so much from too much freedom, too many rights that allow people to be irresponsible.

~Boyd Rice

I never understood alienation. Alienation from what? You have to want to be part of something in order to feel alienated from it.

~Boyd Rice

I think when I was two years old in the sandbox. I think I formulated my basic philosophy there, and I haven't really had to alter it very much ever since

~Boyd Rice

No, seriously, I really don't have much ill-will toward anyone these days; I just ignore the people that I dislike

~Boyd Rice

I've been giving interviews for the last 25 or 30 years, more often than not answering the same questions over and over again, ad nauseum

~Boyd Rice

People who consider themselves political, who follow political developments most rigorously, are often those who view the political process with the greatest lack of perspective.

~Boyd Rice

Embrace nature's brutal perfection.

~Boyd Rice

I think I feel automatically at home in Italy

~Boyd Rice

I have never made any secret of any of my thoughts or areas of interest. I've always been honest, open, and upfront

~Boyd Rice

I've always done everything at my disposal to avoid labeling what I do, or to avoid being labeled myself

~Boyd Rice

Similarly, only people as misanthropic as myself can be counted on not to have to lie to others, since we have the unique luxury of not caring what sort of opinions others formulate about us.

~Boyd Rice

The will to label will always prevail over what's being labeled, usually at the expense of either truth or understanding

~Boyd Rice

There are a lot of people out there who think that I am their worst enemy, and I don't even care if these people exist

~Boyd Rice

Well, I have an interest in power. I have an interest in people who find themselves in the position to exercise absolute power

~Boyd Rice

Well, I use the word Satanist, but I don't know if I ever really considered myself as somebody who's into Satan

~Boyd Rice

My impression, is that prayer is one of the most basic forms of magic. That it's harnessing the powers of your mind

~Boyd Rice

I did Noise Music because I genuinely liked noise... But a lot of people didn't. At my concerts, people smashed beer glasses in my face.

~Boyd Rice

To be beyond any existing classification has always pleased me.
