Mr Speaker, I smell a rat; I see him forming in the air and darkening the sky; but I will nip him in the bud.

~Boyle Roche

All along the untrodden paths of the future, I can see the footprints of an unseen hand.

~Boyle Roche

Half the lies our opponents tell about us are untrue.

~Boyle Roche

Disappointment is the nurse of wisdom.

~Boyle Roche

Every pint bottle should contain a quart.

~Boyle Roche

At present there are such goings-on that everything is at a standstill.

~Boyle Roche

Ireland and England are like two sisters; I would have them embrace like one brother.

~Boyle Roche

We should silence anyone who opposes the right to freedom of speech.

~Boyle Roche

Why should we put ourselves out of our way to do anything for posterity? For what has posterity ever done for us?

~Boyle Roche

The cup of Ireland's misery has been overflowing for centuries and is not yet half full.

~Boyle Roche

The best way to avoid danger is to meet it plump.

~Boyle Roche

P.S. If you do not receive this, of course it must have been miscarried; therefore I beg you to write and let me know.

~Boyle Roche

How can I be in two places at once, unless I were a bird?

~Boyle Roche

The only thing to prevent what's past is to put a stop to it before it happens.

~Boyle Roche

Single misfortunes never come alone, and the greatest of all national calamities is generally followed by one greater.

~Boyle Roche

There is no Levitical decree between nations, and on this occasion I can see neither sin nor shame in marrying our own sister.

~Boyle Roche

A quart bottle should hold a quart.

~Boyle Roche

A man could not be in two places at the same time unless he were a bird.
