You take away all the other luxuries in life, and if you can make someone smile and laugh, you have given the most special gift: happiness.

~Brad Garrett

It's all I have left in my life, caffeine and a poodle.

~Brad Garrett

I love strong women, not only in life but in craft.

~Brad Garrett

I would probably be a teacher if I weren't a comedian.

~Brad Garrett

My whole life, I've been telling jokes.

~Brad Garrett

It's fun to play people who are flawed.

~Brad Garrett

I believe it's a real tedious hostage negotiation to have a marriage be what it is.

~Brad Garrett

There's a black man inside of me just trying to make bail.

~Brad Garrett

I was very, very large as a kid and never athletic, and my home life was a little upside down and I never felt comfortable.

~Brad Garrett

I think we love watching people that are flawed because we're all flawed.

~Brad Garrett

Anyone can cook but only the fearless can be great.

~Brad Garrett

I think I'm better wired for television. I love variety as far as a project. I'm easily bored and the schedule of a television show, it just keeps you going.

~Brad Garrett

I'm the type of guy that feels pressure when I have to order dinner. I'm just that type of guy but that's my fuel. I work well with pressure.

~Brad Garrett

I think as any artist you always want to grow; you always want to get better.

~Brad Garrett

I come from the world of improv; I love any show or any vehicle that gives me an opportunity to be in the moment.

~Brad Garrett

Actually, I have my own charity that I started that helps supplement families with terminal children.

~Brad Garrett

Broadway was without doubt the hardest I ever worked in my life and the highest highs I've ever had as an actor. The unadulterated fear was on a level that was hard to explain.
