I wouldn't say I was the best manager in the business. But I was in the top one.

~Brian Clough

We had a good team on paper. Unfortunately, the game was played on grass.

~Brian Clough

Don't send me flowers when I'm dead. If you like me, send them while I'm alive.

~Brian Clough

If a chairman sacks the manager he initially appointed, he should go as well.

~Brian Clough

If I had an argument with a player we would sit down for twenty minutes, talk about it and then decide I was right!

~Brian Clough

Players lose you games, not tactics. There's so much crap talked about tactics by people who barely know how to win at dominoes.

~Brian Clough

On occasions I have been big-headed. I think most people are when they get in the limelight. I call myself Big Head just to remind myself not to be.

~Brian Clough

They say Rome wasn't built in a day, but I wasn't on that particular job.

~Brian Clough

Saturday comes again, welcome or not, it comes again like it always does, welcome or not, wanted or not, another judgment day - The chance to be saved, the chance to be damned.

~Brian Clough

If God had wanted us to play football in the sky, He'd have put grass up there.

~Brian Clough

I like my women to be feminine, not sliding into tackles and covered in mud.

~Brian Clough

Anybody who can do anything in Leicester but make a jumper has got to be a genius.

~Brian Clough

If he'd been English or Swedish, he'd have walked the England job.

~Brian Clough

Acne is a bigger problem than injuries.

~Brian Clough

Come and see my coaching certificates - they're called the European Cup and league championships.

~Brian Clough

They love me for what I'm not They hate me for what I am.

~Brian Clough

For all his horses, knighthoods and championships, he hasn't got two of what I've got. And I don't mean balls!

~Brian Clough

When I go, God's going to have to give up his favourite chair.

~Brian Clough

Bill eventually became Mr Tottenham Hotspur, and produced such a dazzling team at White Hart Lane that they won the double and played the game in a way that was an object lesson to everybody.

~Brian Clough

Who the hell wants fourteen pairs of shoes when they go on holiday? I haven't had fourteen pairs in my life.

~Brian Clough
