People don't think I'm big enough to be mean. I don't look big enough, but I am.

~Brian Urlacher

You can call it ugly if you want, but I'd call it a win.

~Brian Urlacher

All I can do is go out there and play hard and try and help my team win, and that's what I'm going to keep doing.

~Brian Urlacher

I lead by example. But if I get pissed enough, I'll say something. It usually isn't rah-rah; it's more complaining.

~Brian Urlacher

How great a life is this? To get to knock guys' heads off for 60 minutes and not get thrown in jail?

~Brian Urlacher

My mom is my heart. But my [step]dad was my role model, the hardest working man I ever knew.

~Brian Urlacher

I love football in the rain. That is what it's all about.

~Brian Urlacher

You want to be the best at your position. And if people think of me as one of the best ever, that's the ultimate compliment.

~Brian Urlacher

If you play angry, you lose what you're supposed to do. On defense we just read our keys and play fast.

~Brian Urlacher

You know what we should do? We should just put flags on everybody. Let's make it the NFFL - the National Flag Football League. It's unbelievable.

~Brian Urlacher

I want to be remembered as a championship football player.

~Brian Urlacher

You've got to be a little nasty out there. But most of the time, I'm having fun.

~Brian Urlacher

I see things as they happen pretty quick, and I just go hit it.

~Brian Urlacher

Two of the people I don't care about: fans or media.

~Brian Urlacher

I like to think of myself as a regular guy, except I play football for a living. I try not to be an arrogant turd out there.

~Brian Urlacher

Steve Smith, that's what happened to us. He just kept making plays. We had a plan. We never really doubled him. We ran a lot of Cover 2, and obviously that didn't work out too good for us.
