My dad had a movie theater so I was there every night.

~Brion James

Wake up! Time to die!

~Brion James

Producing is nothing more than bringing all the elements together, connecting people.

~Brion James

I'm a parrot. I can pick up an accent and just do it.

~Brion James

My whole deal when I do accents or dialects is I gotta fool the locals. If I fool the locals then I've done my job.

~Brion James

I'm big and a lot of the stars are smaller so if you're big and mean looking, you play bad guys. After Blade Runner, I was the meanest guy in Hollywood.

~Brion James

Westerns was why I got into the business. I grew up on a small farm in California and all I ever wanted to do was to play gangsters and cowboys in movies.

~Brion James

I play out negative fantasies for people. I'm the guy people love to hate. And they always remember the bad guy.

~Brion James

Since very early in my career, I have always did my own stunt fighting.

~Brion James

The best thing about Sci-Fi, which is my favorite genre, is that there are no rules for behavior. So you can do anything you want.

~Brion James

I could talk about Blade Runner forever.

~Brion James

I was a different kind of kid, oversensitive and all that.

~Brion James

I prayed to God for help and I put myself in a recovery house called Studio 12. It was for people in the business and you didn't have to have any money to go, which was good because I was broke.

~Brion James

In the '70s, everybody was doing drugs, so long as you showed up and did your work, they'd use you until you died.

~Brion James

I did 125 films, and over 100 television shows, and you've never seen the same character twice.

~Brion James

Larry Kasdan is a great director.

~Brion James

I'm a character actor, so I don't take the hit if the movie's bad, the lead does. So, I don't want to be the lead. He takes the hit, I don't.

~Brion James

I've never considered myself a leading man, don't look like one, don't want to be one.

~Brion James

The bad guys are the best parts.

~Brion James

I still do television. I don't care. I just want to work. I love to work. I want to do 500 movies.

~Brion James

You know, stand-up comedy is where I pretty much started out.

~Brion James

I liked the drama of getting stoned.

~Brion James

You never know what show is going to change your life.
