Sports betting is all about money management, so the most money won on one event is not the most important thing

~Bruce Dern

I'm curious about what makes people do things that they do, unless it's absolutely terrifying to me.

~Bruce Dern

The big reason why I became an actor in the first place was to communicate. I never acted in high school...I was desperate to communicate.

~Bruce Dern

The difference between my generation of actors and their generation is that they were bigger than life. We are not bigger than life

~Bruce Dern

The Palestinians need more help from the Arab countries. Since 1967, the world has learned that there is not going to be real progress in the region until Palestine gets something back that they had.

~Bruce Dern

I never voted for a president until I felt Obama had a dream and might pull it off, and that was the first time I ever voted for a president.

~Bruce Dern

I took Laura on a trip once where we followed the Immigrant Trail for about six hundred miles. She really learned a lesson. People forget too often how it was back then.

~Bruce Dern

There's no time in life to do all the roles I'd like to play.

~Bruce Dern

If you are willing to expose your heart...being publicly private, you just may do something.

~Bruce Dern

I'm a big wilderness, mountain guy. I love to go up in the mountains and I can just sit for hours and just look at the mountains.

~Bruce Dern

The people I worked with were bigger than life. Once you put them on the screen, they were huge.

~Bruce Dern

I tried to make the Olympics team in 1956

~Bruce Dern

From nine on I was forced to camp every summer. Not a volunteer. I played with the wrong kids so they made me go to camp to straighten me out.

~Bruce Dern

Everybody can't be like Redford and pop out there and make big bucks right away because you look like a Greek god... The guy's a friend of mine and he has absolutely no privacy in his life.

~Bruce Dern

I'm totally sports-oriented; I relate a lot of my career and everything to sports.

~Bruce Dern

I always made a living as an actor when I came to California. I never had to do anything else.

~Bruce Dern

I'm not good at living in the grim places...when we did Gatsby, I lived in Claridges, that's where I wanted to live. I can't live in grimness and then go play a classy human being.

~Bruce Dern

In all American professional sports you start on a certain level and you have to work your way up through a farm system. It's really the same in acting.

~Bruce Dern

Track and field has always interested me.
