It may be an old cliché, but I think true love will last; it has no end. But finding the right person is a very difficult thing.

~Bruce Forsyth

I'm not even really a joke-teller. I can do ad-lib and banter, but I don't do jokes.

~Bruce Forsyth

When a performer doesn't get nervous, that is when you have to give up.

~Bruce Forsyth

Puerto Rico is one of those places you can be as quiet or as crazy as you want, because there's so much nightlife. I have to take the craziness carefully.

~Bruce Forsyth

You can shuffle my deck any day!

~Bruce Forsyth

It could still be a good night if you play your cards right.

~Bruce Forsyth

I don't do close-ups any more. I am better looking from the waist downwards.

~Bruce Forsyth

Nice to see you, to see you nice

~Bruce Forsyth

It gets harder every day to get out of bed. I don't feel like it loads of the time. It is only my exercise routine which wakes me up.

~Bruce Forsyth

There are enough tears in any child's life; we certainly don't need to add to them in the name of entertainment.

~Bruce Forsyth

Ambition can take the place of everything - even sex.

~Bruce Forsyth

A round of golf is the ideal antidote to stress.

~Bruce Forsyth

I am not dodderly... dodderly I am not!

~Bruce Forsyth

It's the combination of marrying a beautiful woman three decades younger and my iPad that keeps me young.

~Bruce Forsyth

When I was in the business as a young performer, it was a recognised fact that when you got to 60 you were out, because there'd be a new crop of comics coming up all the time, every 10 years or so.

~Bruce Forsyth

When I married Wilnelia, one of the first things I wanted to know about Puerto Rico was the quality of the golf courses.

~Bruce Forsyth

Not working is bad for you. It is my drug, it gives me a high; most performers will tell you that. And there is nothing like the high that an audience gives you.

~Bruce Forsyth

That Mick Jagger, I feel sorry for him. After all these years he still can't get no satisfaction.

~Bruce Forsyth

No one - apart from my agent, perhaps - should leave one of my shows in tears.

~Bruce Forsyth

Just doing any kind of work - even an interview for breakfast television - makes me feel happy.

~Bruce Forsyth

My holidays are very important. Mind you, I take a very long one every year.

~Bruce Forsyth

Did you write the words, or the lyrics?

~Bruce Forsyth

I'm the leader of the pack, which makes me such a lucky Jack, for openers, here's a pair of cuties, here's my darling dealing beauties.

~Bruce Forsyth

Goodness, that Simon Cowell is a sensitive soul.

~Bruce Forsyth

On stage, I think I'm 35. Working takes over my whole body and I become a younger man - that's why I won't stop.

~Bruce Forsyth

I have no plans to rock myself to sleep in my bath chair yet.

~Bruce Forsyth

I hate Mondays - I hate that feeling you've got to get yourself up.

~Bruce Forsyth

People think I rush around all day long like a raving lunatic. I'm much more relaxed than that.

~Bruce Forsyth

I don't want to grow old gracefully. I want to put up a bit of a fight.

~Bruce Forsyth

All kids love to get dirty, but if I wandered into the garage, my father would say: 'Son, you're not going to have filthy hands like mine. You're going into show business.'

~Bruce Forsyth

People think I am the crazy person on stage, but I know how to relax.

~Bruce Forsyth

If I go out one night, I must stay in the next. It's the same with my golf. If I play one day, I don't play the next. I try to pace myself.

~Bruce Forsyth

If I couldn't move, I don't know what I would do. That would be terrifying for me; I don't know how I'd cope with that.

~Bruce Forsyth

I read a lot when I'm away. I love courtroom dramas and I'm always looking for new authors.

~Bruce Forsyth

He was so good at everything he did. You can't call Ronnie Barker a comedian. He was an actor, and a great writer.

~Bruce Forsyth

Golf is hugely important, as it keeps me going.

~Bruce Forsyth

Although I'm predominantly known for game-shows, I do prefer to be known as a performer.

~Bruce Forsyth

I can tell by the way somebody walks if they can dance or not. Just by the rhythm.

~Bruce Forsyth

They do say, the smaller the feet, the better the dancer.

~Bruce Forsyth

It's frightening, the way life speeds up. When you're at school, time can't go fast enough.

~Bruce Forsyth

Little did I know that there's nothing more competitive in the world than a professional ballroom dancer. They are as competitive as Olympic athletes.

~Bruce Forsyth

Once you've experienced the warmth of an audience, the achievement of getting your first laugh, and entertaining them, singing or playing piano, it just keeps it all going.

~Bruce Forsyth

It's important for a dancer to wear very tight underpants. I used to feel a bit exposed if I wasn't being held up in the right place.

~Bruce Forsyth

In my mind, everything is too sanitised on television - what is wrong with things going wrong?

~Bruce Forsyth

I love getting on You Tube to look at the old comics. I am in my element seeing guys like Jack Benny and Phil Silvers give interviews.
