The most important single thing that any Latter-day Saint ever does in this world is to marry the right person, in the right place, by the right authority.

~Bruce R. McConkie

But I shall not know any better than I know now that he is God's Almighty Son, that he is our Savior and Redeemer, and that salvation comes in and through his atoning blood and in no other way.

~Bruce R. McConkie

The family unit is the most important organization in time or in eternity.

~Bruce R. McConkie

We cannot survive spiritually with one foot in the Church and the other in the world.

~Bruce R. McConkie

All progression in spiritual things is dependent upon the attainment of humility.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Existence came from God; death came by Adam; and immortality and eternal life come through Christ.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Obviously the holy practice (of polygamy) will commence again after the Second Coming of the Son of Man and the ushering in of the millennium.

~Bruce R. McConkie

No one can argue with a testimony, it is not a debatable issue. It is there to be accepted or rejected.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Every mortal birth is a heaven-given reminder to prepare for the second birth.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Woman's primary place is in the home, where she is to rear children and abide by the righteous counsel of her husband.

~Bruce R. McConkie

We expect to see the day when temples will dot the earth, each one a house of the Lord.

~Bruce R. McConkie

There is no such thing as neutrality where the gospel is concerned.

~Bruce R. McConkie

God... is a personal Being, a holy and exalted man.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Plural marriage is not essential to salvation or exaltation.

~Bruce R. McConkie

As long as man's beliefs, or any part of them, are based on error, he is not completely free, for the chains of error bind his mind.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Salvation is a family affair.

~Bruce R. McConkie

All our losses and sufferings will be made up to us in the resurrection.

~Bruce R. McConkie

There is nothing as important as having the companionship of the Holy Ghost.

~Bruce R. McConkie

We make our own choices, and then we present the matter to the Lord and get his approving, ratifying seal.

~Bruce R. McConkie

I do not know all of the providences of the Lord, but I do know that he permits false doctrine to be taught in and out of the Church and that such teaching is part of the sifting process of mortality

~Bruce R. McConkie

Religious music is by far the greatest music of the ages. What is there to compare-in rhythmic beauty, poetic sublimity, and inspired teachings-with the Psalms of David?

~Bruce R. McConkie

When the real history of the world is written, it will show god's dealings with men, and the place the gospel has played in the rise and fall of nations.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Faith is a gift of God bestowed as a reward for personal righteousness.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Christ was Begotten by an immortal Father in the same way that mortal men are begotten by mortal fathers.

~Bruce R. McConkie

What does it matter if a few barking dogs snap at the heels of the weary travelers? ... The caravan moves on

~Bruce R. McConkie

The Atonement of Christ is the most transcendental event that has ever occurred or that will ever occur, since the sunrise of creation to all ages of eternity

~Bruce R. McConkie

Baptism is the gate through which all must enter to accomplish the Lord's desire to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of man.

~Bruce R. McConkie

God stands revealed or remains forever unknown.

~Bruce R. McConkie

It is my province to teach to the church what the doctrine is. It is your province to echo what I say or to remain silent.

~Bruce R. McConkie

There are those who say that revealed religion and organic evolution can be harmonized. This is both false and devilish.

~Bruce R. McConkie

Believers in the doctrines of modern Christendom will reap damnation to their souls.
