It's like an angel crying on your tongue.

~Bruno Heller

To me, the difference between mythology and real history is that the real history has to tell a kind of believable story of how things happened. The physics has to work.

~Bruno Heller

It gives me vertigo to watch TV dramas.

~Bruno Heller

One of the advantages of series TV is that you can change your mind and plan things as you go.

~Bruno Heller

You always think, no matter how many times you fail, that the next time you will succeed. Otherwise you wouldn't keep trying.

~Bruno Heller

The evil of storytelling is you're trying to make the audience complicit in murder - 'Kill the guy! Jump him!' And then once you've done it, it's like, 'I've killed this guy, now what?'

~Bruno Heller

There is a place for visionaries and the avant-garde in this world, but not at 9 o'clock on a network.

~Bruno Heller

You name the TV psychic - they're con men.

~Bruno Heller

The great thing about Gotham is it encompasses so many different worlds.

~Bruno Heller

You can't be someone you're not on TV. You can in movies, but not on TV because you can't hide.

~Bruno Heller

One of the tricks that you have to learn, with episodic TV, is you don't know how many years you're going to be blessed with.
