Labels don't really impress, it's the uniqueness and risk in decor that inspire.

~Bryan Batt

You know, I think I was always intrigued by theater since I was a small child.

~Bryan Batt

Until everyone is free, the experiment of America is not succeeding. We all want opportunity.

~Bryan Batt

I did grow up in New Orleans. I grew up right on the lake, right across the levee.

~Bryan Batt

Did Anthony Hopkins really have to be a serial killer to be in 'Silence of the Lambs?,' I don't think so, no. It's called acting, people.

~Bryan Batt

In the dining room, next to my collection of colorful papier-mache Mardi Gras float art, hang draperies made of the New Orleans toile fabric that I designed pre-Katrina for Hazelnut.

~Bryan Batt

I am a collector of many things, but I particularly love the sterling silver mint julep cups, each engraved with the titles of the Broadway shows in which I appeared.

~Bryan Batt

Put every light you have on a dimmer. Because after a certain age, we can play with the lighting and set it on how you look best on it. Its cheaper than plastic surgery.

~Bryan Batt

I tend to wake up in the middle of the night with ideas crying to be documented.

~Bryan Batt

I didn't have any role models. I really thought I was doomed to this loveless, lonely life. I didn't know any gay people until I began doing theater.

~Bryan Batt

Gay actors have been playing straight since Euripides.

~Bryan Batt

It's funny... musical theater is what paid my rent and kept me going for the longest time.

~Bryan Batt

We have a costume closet at home. My family will put on a costume for any excuse.

~Bryan Batt

I live a bi-coastal and sometimes tri-coastal life.

~Bryan Batt

There are many Broadway songs that apply to moments on 'Mad Men,' and I sing them on set all the time.
