We don't live in the world of reality, we live in the world of how we perceive reality.

~Bryan Singer

I love filmmaking, and I love the process. And I would rather do nothing else. It's a privilege to be able to paint such big pictures, so to speak.

~Bryan Singer

Perception has always interested me. The idea that behind every face, there are a thousand faces. Beneath the placid veneer of middle America, there lies terror.

~Bryan Singer

This is a darker Lex too, because he's been in prison and he wants revenge. He's not playing around.

~Bryan Singer

Once I start something, I always finish it. They had been trying to get X-Men made for 30 years and they thought maybe if I got involved, it might actually happen.

~Bryan Singer

I started making 8mm films when I was 13, so I've been directing for 21 years.

~Bryan Singer

I know what to do with the camera because I see the giant in the camera when I'm operating it live on the set.

~Bryan Singer

I love Hugh Jackman. Love Hugh Jackman. He's the coolest. He's one of the coolest actors I've ever worked with, and I'll do anything with him.

~Bryan Singer

When you're dealing with shooting a lot of live action in 3D, you're committed to how much 3D you're giving the audience.

~Bryan Singer

Size, perspective- large objects, when you make them too 3D, you dimensionalize them too much, they appear tiny, so you have to be careful about things like that.

~Bryan Singer

The 3D, it changes the way you shoot in a way, especially when you're shooting live action 3D elements.

~Bryan Singer

I don't particularly like to go see 3D movies, but when I'm doing it I kind of do enjoy it. I enjoy seeing the image in 3D, there's a childhood fun about being able to see those dimensions.

~Bryan Singer

If you want to give me Robert Downey Jr in a metal suit and have him join the X-Men, then yes, let's go head-to-head [with Marvel Studios].
