Christmas makes me happy no matter what time of year it comes around.

~Bryan White

There is not many tenors in the male category and that makes me stick out.

~Bryan White

If I ever did cross over I would like to do it tactfully. I don't want to offend anyone in country. Can you have the best of both worlds? I sure like the idea of it!

~Bryan White

One time when somebody showed up in a wedding dress, but I never knew if it was a joke, or she was serious. She asked me to marry her. She was serious. It was pretty funny.

~Bryan White

I'm an entertainer. If people are paying good money for tickets they deserve the best show they can see. I don't get into lighting stuff on fire, but I do believe in going the extra mile.

~Bryan White

What is nice about country music today is that most artists are not trying to do something everybody else is doing. They really are trying to develop their own uniqueness.

~Bryan White

I've never really been a traditional country kind of guy. I wanted my music to sound more like the end of the '90s and to have the kind of great music, pop or whatever, that radio will embrace.

~Bryan White

Both of my parents were musicians.

~Bryan White

I've always wanted to be a real universal artist, one that every type of audience could relate to.

~Bryan White

I remember my mom dressed like Janis Joplin.

~Bryan White

There are many people that struggle and struggle and have all the talent in the world, but for some reason they are not successful. You never know why those things happen.

~Bryan White

It's almost scary how good things are right now. I've been engaged now for about a year and it's the first time anything like that has happened to me.

~Bryan White

I want people to hear the presence of God in the music.

~Bryan White

Country Music is great music because it really comes from real life experiences. It is such a great haven for reality.
