

Buffalo Bill Quotes

Men, Horse, Home, Two, West, Three, Character, Fire, Years, Country, Numbers, Giving, Average, Government, Indian, Bills, People, Father, Fighting, Thinking

My restless, roaming spirit would not allow me to remain at home very long.

~Buffalo Bill

Every Indian outbreak that I have ever known has resulted from broken promises and broken treaties by the government.

~Buffalo Bill

The cholera had broken out at the post, and five or six men were dying daily.

~Buffalo Bill

I could never resist the call of the trail.

~Buffalo Bill

Don't ever say you are sorry for "being caught in the moment". Because, at that moment, that is EXACTLY where you wanted to be.

~Buffalo Bill

The Indians said the bones were those of a race of people ... three times the size of a man.

~Buffalo Bill

But the West of the old times, with its strong characters, its stern battles and its tremendous stretches of loneliness, can never be blotted from my mind.

~Buffalo Bill

As a good horse is not very apt to jump over a bank, if left to guide himself, I let mine pick his own way.

~Buffalo Bill

I felt only as a man can feel who is roaming over the prairies of the far West, well armed, and mounted on a fleet and gallant steed.

~Buffalo Bill

The Indians kept increasing in numbers until it was estimated that we were fighting from 800 to 1,000 of them.

~Buffalo Bill

My debut upon the world's stage occurred on February 26th, 1845.

~Buffalo Bill

The Indians were well mounted and felt proud and elated because they had been made United States soldiers.

~Buffalo Bill

I had many enemies among the Sioux; I would be running considerable risk in meeting them.

~Buffalo Bill

I had the best buffalo horse that ever made a track.

~Buffalo Bill

Frontiersmen good and bad, gunmen as well as inspired prophets of the future, have been my camp companions. Thus, I know the country of which I am about to write as few men now living have known it.

~Buffalo Bill

I was persuaded now that I was destined to lead a life on the Plains.

~Buffalo Bill

But the love of adventure was in father's blood.

~Buffalo Bill

The McCarthy boys, at the proper moment, gave orders to fire upon the advancing enemy.

~Buffalo Bill

We got more provisions for our whiskey than the same money, which we paid for the liquor, would have bought; so after all it proved a very profitable investment.

~Buffalo Bill

Some days I would go without any fire at all, and eat raw frozen meat and melt snow in my mouth for water.

~Buffalo Bill

It was my effort, in depicting the West, to depict it as it was.

~Buffalo Bill

Quick as lightning Wild Bill pulled his revolver. The stranger fell dead, shot through the brain.

~Buffalo Bill

My brother was a great favorite with everybody, and his death cast a gloom upon the whole neighborhood.

~Buffalo Bill

Excitement was plentiful during my two years' service as a Pony Express rider.

~Buffalo Bill

Major North and myself went out in advance of the command several miles and killed a number of buffaloes.

~Buffalo Bill

Having secured my Indian actors, I started for Baltimore, where I organized my combination, and which was the largest troupe I had yet had on the road.

~Buffalo Bill

I found Spotted Tail's lodge. He invited me to enter.

~Buffalo Bill

My first plan of escape having failed, I now determined upon another.

~Buffalo Bill

Wild Bill was a strange character. In person he was about six feet and one inch in height. He was a Plains-man in every sense of the word.

~Buffalo Bill

After crossing the Smoky Hill River, I felt comparatively safe as this was the last stream I had to cross.

~Buffalo Bill

On reaching the place where the Indians had surprised us, we found the bodies of the three men whom they had killed and scalped, and literally cut into pieces.

~Buffalo Bill

The Free State men, myself among them, took it for granted that Missouri was a slave state.

~Buffalo Bill

We had avoided discovery by the Sioux scouts, and we were confident of giving them a complete surprise.

~Buffalo Bill

Wild Bill was anything but a quarrelsome man yet I have personal knowledge of at least half a dozen men whom he had at various times killed.

~Buffalo Bill

The first trip of the Pony Express was made in ten days - an average of two hundred miles a day. But we soon began stretching our riders and making better time.

~Buffalo Bill

Washington newspaper men know everything.

~Buffalo Bill

I began to think that my time had come, as the saying is.

~Buffalo Bill

General Custer was a close observer and student of personal character.

~Buffalo Bill

Indians were frequently off their reservations.

~Buffalo Bill

My wife was delighted with the home I had given her amid the prairies of the far west.

~Buffalo Bill

Springfield has always had a place in my heart.

~Buffalo Bill

Nothing of course was ever done to Bill for the killing of Tutt.

~Buffalo Bill

Major North has had for years complete power over these Indians and can do more with them than any man living.

~Buffalo Bill

Related Links:

- Men Quotes
- Horse Quotes
- Home Quotes
- Two Quotes
- West Quotes
- Three Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Fire Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Numbers Quotes
- Giving Quotes
- Average Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Indian Quotes
- Bills Quotes
- People Quotes
- Father Quotes
- Fighting Quotes
- Thinking Quotes