I'm so happy and thankful I made it a point to be a stay-at-home mom.

~Candace Cameron

I figure this is my time - to relax, be with my family and have a normal life.

~Candace Cameron

I'm always inspired by people who raise the bar, whether in their field of work, parenthood, or giving back.

~Candace Cameron

When you lie there's always going to be a consequence. Lying never wins at the end.

~Candace Cameron

Almost everyone thinks they are a good person, but the question you should be asking is, am I good enough to go to Heaven? How would you know?

~Candace Cameron

Once I got my driver's license everybody treated me like I was an adult.

~Candace Cameron

The cool thing about my profession is that I can do it until the day I die.

~Candace Cameron

We can start by living by the Spirit while we stop following the heart of discontentment and doubt.

~Candace Cameron

Once you find love, you find it. There isn't an age on love.

~Candace Cameron

Am I good enough to go to Heaven?

~Candace Cameron

Raising children has given me a compassionate and gracious heart for all children and people, realizing we don't always know the circumstances behind closed doors.

~Candace Cameron

My husband and my children inspire me on a daily basis to be the best wife, mom, and woman I can be.

~Candace Cameron

The way I was raised, family was always the most important. When I had our first daughter, Natasha, I knew that's what I wanted to do.

~Candace Cameron

Emotionally, I stay healthy by being grounded in the word of God, being open and honest, never being afraid to speak my mind in love, and having good communication with those around me.

~Candace Cameron

It's amazing. My kids have grown me in ways I never knew possible. The patience I've received and the love I get from them is just amazing.

~Candace Cameron

I always try to get at least eight hours of sleep each night. It's the best thing I can do for my body.

~Candace Cameron

It seems too easy to lie in the moment but you always have to tell more lies on top of it to cover your tracks.

~Candace Cameron

It wasn't about me trying to lose weight. It was all about emotions.

~Candace Cameron

I really do feel like I'm in better shape and look better now - even after having three kids - than I did before.

~Candace Cameron

I don't think balance is ever achieved in the full sense of the word.

~Candace Cameron

My faith dictates a whole lot of what I'll do.

~Candace Cameron

Personally I'm an advocate for healthy marriages and families and I do a lot of speaking around the country sharing my faith and talking to women's groups, even specifically about marriage.

~Candace Cameron

Raising children has made me more patient and selfless.

~Candace Cameron

My daughter's dabbling in showbiz, and she's done a few commercials. She's auditioned for some movies and shows, so I'm letting her pursue that. I'm OK with it.

~Candace Cameron

It wasn't always easy at times, having grown up on television and being in the entertainment industry.

~Candace Cameron

My children have grown up around animals. They're not scared of them.

~Candace Cameron

When we invest in the things that matter most to us, that are within God's unique design for each of us, I believe we will achieve a sense of balance in our lives.

~Candace Cameron

People who have little, but much joy, inspire me.

~Candace Cameron

Raising children made me determine what I stand for, what I believe in, and who I want to be because, ultimately, I'm who they'll look to as an example.

~Candace Cameron

Raising children pushed me to walk the walk and practice life as I preach it.

~Candace Cameron

Priorities and purpose help keep us on track.
