I see a New York where people who are down on their luck can get back on the road to responsibility, a job and dignity.

~Carl Paladino

I think the media has been in denial just like the party regulars have been in denial. They just don't understand that the government that we have today is not what the people want as a government.

~Carl Paladino

I believe in the American Dream because I have lived the American Dream.

~Carl Paladino

People want a grounded government. They want a government that's going to be responsible to them.

~Carl Paladino

We're going to restructure the state government into a government that's responsive to the needs of New York state taxpayers.

~Carl Paladino

I see a New York that is once again the empire state.

~Carl Paladino

Don't misquote me as wanting to hurt homosexual people in any way. That would be a dastardly lie.

~Carl Paladino

I have a great sensitivity to kids. I have a great sensitivity to the people that fall between the cracks.

~Carl Paladino

THESE ARE BEAUTIFUL PROPERTIES with basketball courts, bathroom facilities, toilet facilities. Many young people would love to get the hell out of cities

~Carl Paladino

If you're a citizen of the State of New York, your kid has as much a right as another kid to an education, and the best education. The money should be distributed equally to all.
