An actor really suffers when the director isn't prepared because you start running out of time for the shoot and then have to do it fast.

~Carol Kane

That's when the great stuff happens, when you're not checking yourself all the time, being critical of yourself and what other people are doing.

~Carol Kane

People who are interested in the arts and theater are such a minority.

~Carol Kane

It's hard to regulate the speed at which you can achieve something creative and emotional.

~Carol Kane

And my first film was Carnal Knowledge, another amazing experience, largely because of Mike Nichols, who would tell me you can't do anything wrong because you're doing everything right.

~Carol Kane

The Oscar nomination made me a recognizable name to other actors and people in general.

~Carol Kane

My face is my career.

~Carol Kane

Work is the most nourishing thing so far in my life.

~Carol Kane

I don't like that I'm my own commodity, that I am what I sell.

~Carol Kane

I know I'll work, but not when or where. I never know what to pack.

~Carol Kane

I only eat things that you don't have to kill.

~Carol Kane

I don't put together cars, I put together people.

~Carol Kane

Acting is pretty much my whole life.

~Carol Kane

I make my relationships at work.

~Carol Kane

It's very hard to remain a student in life.

~Carol Kane

I don't feel that I have any great grasp of technique that I should pass along to people.
