

Caroline Kennedy Quotes

People, Mother, Thinking, Father, Book, Believe, Country, Fighting, Reading, Children, Growing Up, Mean, Strong, Fashion, Writing, Holiday, Husband, Kids, Life, Mom

I can't stand to hear his [Obama's] voice anymore. He's a liar, and worse.

~Caroline Kennedy

There's so much to think about when you're becoming an adult, and there's so many great poems about that apprehension and excitement.

~Caroline Kennedy

I can see both sides of term limits, and I think, in different positions, term limits make more sense than in some others.

~Caroline Kennedy

The bedrock of our democracy is the rule of law and that means we have to have an independent judiciary, judges who can make decisions independent of the political winds that are blowing.

~Caroline Kennedy

After my mom died, there was so much written about her fashion and her style and all that, and I felt that one of the most important parts of her was missing, her real intellectual curiosity.

~Caroline Kennedy

You have to remind kids to stay connected to the meaning of Christmas. Sometimes it takes a little bit of effort, but it's so worth it.

~Caroline Kennedy

As much as we need a prosperous economy, we also need a prosperity of kindness and decency.

~Caroline Kennedy

When you make the right decision, it doesn't really matter what anyone else thinks.

~Caroline Kennedy

I think my mother... made it clear that you have to live life by your own terms and you have to not worry about what other people think and you have to have the courage to do the unexpected.

~Caroline Kennedy

People don't always realize that my parents shared a sense of intellectual curiosity and a love of reading and of history.

~Caroline Kennedy

Now is the time to move this country forward.

~Caroline Kennedy

I don't remember my father reading to me, but I remember him telling me bedtime stories. I got to pick what was in them, and then he'd make them up.

~Caroline Kennedy

Sharing the holiday with other people, and feeling that you're giving of yourself, gets you past all the commercialism.

~Caroline Kennedy

To the extent that we are all educated and informed, we will be more equipped to deal with the gut issues that tend to divide us.

~Caroline Kennedy

In my family in particular, I think, there was a sense we have to work twice as hard.

~Caroline Kennedy

Many people remember that spirit that President Kennedy summoned forth. Many people look to me as somebody who embodies that sense of possibility.

~Caroline Kennedy

The most beautiful people are all in the library.

~Caroline Kennedy

Poetry is really a way of sharing feelings and ideas.

~Caroline Kennedy

In terms of my marriage, you know, falling in love with my husband was by far the best thing that's ever happened to me.

~Caroline Kennedy

We need a President who is not afraid of complexity, who believes in an open and tolerant society, and who knows that the world can be made new again - and that President is Al Gore.

~Caroline Kennedy

In those rare moments, when such a person comes along, we need to put aside our plans and reach for what we know is possible.

~Caroline Kennedy

I have come to believe, more strongly than ever, that after people die they really do live on through those who love them.

~Caroline Kennedy

In a funny way, poems are suited to modern life. They're short, they're intense. Nobody has time to read a 700-page book. People read magazines, and a poem takes less time than an article.

~Caroline Kennedy

I feel like my grandparents and parents gave me a tremendous amount. And if I can pass some of that on, then I'll be very happy.

~Caroline Kennedy

Change isn't easy, it takes time.

~Caroline Kennedy

I know how important it is to, you know, to be my own person.

~Caroline Kennedy

The happiest years of my mother's life were spent in Washington, D.C. It was where she met my father, where John was born and where I spent my earliest years.

~Caroline Kennedy

I enjoy writing. I enjoy that kind of process.

~Caroline Kennedy

Well I've been writing books. So that, by its nature, is kind of a solitary occupation. And from time to time I have research help, but mostly I've done those completely on my own.

~Caroline Kennedy

I know my mother so well, so it's hard for me to remember that people have a certain image of her, but they don't really know her personality.

~Caroline Kennedy

The biggest problem is people are afraid of poetry, think they can't understand it or that it will be boring.

~Caroline Kennedy

I'm not as shy as everybody makes me out to be.

~Caroline Kennedy

I have a lifelong devotion to public service.

~Caroline Kennedy

I think that the presidency really brings out the best in a lot of people.

~Caroline Kennedy

I've been a Democrat all my life.

~Caroline Kennedy

I've raised three kids. I'm a lawyer. I've written books on the Constitution.

~Caroline Kennedy

The amazing thing about the winners is that none of them really felt that they were doing anything special. They just felt like it was the right thing to do.

~Caroline Kennedy

I grew up in a household where reading was encouraged. My mother believed in the power of words, and my father obviously did too.

~Caroline Kennedy

Growing up in politics I know that women decide all elections because we do all the work.

~Caroline Kennedy

I grew up in New York, I love New York.

~Caroline Kennedy

Education was the most important value in our home when I was growing up.

~Caroline Kennedy

I am, you know, a Democrat through and through. I've always voted Democratic. You know, that is where my heart lies.

~Caroline Kennedy

Well, the role of money in politics is pretty corrupting right now.

~Caroline Kennedy

Going into politics is something people have asked me about forever.

~Caroline Kennedy

Related Links:

- People Quotes
- Mother Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Father Quotes
- Book Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Fighting Quotes
- Reading Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Growing Up Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Strong Quotes
- Fashion Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Holiday Quotes
- Husband Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Life Quotes
- Mom Quotes