The only way to ensure equality for women is to clearly declare it in our Constitution.

~Carolyn Maloney

My idea is that we've worked so many years for equality, but the only area where we've achieved equality, with men, is in job loss. We are still 77 cents to the dollar.

~Carolyn Maloney

Where are the women? The women are here.

~Carolyn Maloney

In America, we have long stood by the principle that the protections of the law are not meant just for some.

~Carolyn Maloney

Nine out of ten adult Americans have a checking account. It's the most widely used financial services product in the United States.

~Carolyn Maloney

If you ask around, it's pretty easy to find someone who has a bank account overdraft horror story to tell.

~Carolyn Maloney

I believe very strongly in paid sick leave.

~Carolyn Maloney

Because it's important. Laws can be reversed, Supreme Court decisions can be overturned, gender classifications can continue.

~Carolyn Maloney

Women deserve the same permanent rights and explicit protections given men in the Constitution.

~Carolyn Maloney

While men's rights are guaranteed by specific language in the Constitution, women's equal rights aren't mentioned.

~Carolyn Maloney

The proposal that men and women should be treated equally under the law is hardly a controversial concept.

~Carolyn Maloney

We need a mayor who knows how to balance a budget, who understands the urgency of delivering all the services that a great city needs, who understand the need of working families.
