Integrity, Able, Doe, No Failure, Feelings, Years, Voice, Next Steps, Ifs, Prayer*

To the wrongs that need resistance, To the right that needs assistance,
To the future in the distance, Give yourselves.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

Roll up your sleeves, set your mind to making history, and wage such a fight for liberty that the whole world will respect our sex.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The vote has been costly. Prize it...understand what it means and what it can do for your country.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

Service to a just cause rewards the worker with more real happiness and satisfaction than any other venture of life.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

In the adjustment of the new order of things, we women demand an equal voice; we shall accept nothing less.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

No written law has ever been more binding than unwritten custom supported by popular opinion.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

If we learn from the experience, there is no failure, only delayed victory.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The vote is the emblem of your equality, women of America, the guarantee of your liberty.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The struggle for the vote was an effort to bring men to feel less superior and women to feel less inferior.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The answer to one is the answer to all. Government by 'the people' is expedient or it is not. If it is expedient, then obviously all the people must be included.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The vote is a power, a weapon of offense and defense, a prayer.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

White supremacy will be strengthened, not weakened, by women's suffrage.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

When a just cause reaches its flood-tide...whatever stands in its way must fall before its overwhelming force.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

What is prejudice? An opinion, which is not based upon reason; a judgment, without having heard the argument; a feeling, without being able to trace from whence it came.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

Just as the world war is no white man's war, but every man's war, so is the struggle for woman suffrage no white woman's struggle, but every woman's struggle.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

There are whole precincts of voters in this country whose united intelligence does not equal that of one representative American woman.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The belief that we are defending the highest good of the mothers of our race and the ultimate welfare of society makes every sacrifice seem trivial, every duty a pleasure.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

Parliaments have stopped laughing at woman suffrage, and politicians have begun to dodge! It is the inevitable premonition of coming victory.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

living for a high purpose is as honorable as dying for it.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

The woman suffrage movement in the United States was a movement of the spirit of the Revolution which was striving to hold the nation to the ideals which won independence.

~Carrie Chapman Catt

There is one thing no people have ever done; that is, to oppose a threatening war with intelligent and vigorous purpose some years before it was due to arrive.
