There is never enough horsepower.....just not enough traction.

~Carroll Shelby

Porsche and BMW drivers are arrogant.

~Carroll Shelby

Yesterday's History. Tomorrow's a Mystery. So live for today.

~Carroll Shelby

Horsepower sells cars, torque wins races

~Carroll Shelby

If you don't go do what you wanna do, you're just bullshitting yourself.

~Carroll Shelby

My proudest moments are beating Ferrari for the World Championship in 1965, and working with Ford to win Le Mans in 1966 and 1967.

~Carroll Shelby

I never made a damn dime until I started doing what I wanted.

~Carroll Shelby

Driving race cars was an avenue for me to learn how to build my own car, and that was my ambition all along.

~Carroll Shelby

Any man that eats Chili and Cornbread can't be all bad

~Carroll Shelby

I'm not going to take this defeatist attitude and listen to all this crap any more from all these people who have nothing except doomsday to predict.

~Carroll Shelby

I don't think I'm a celebrity. I'm just a guy from east Texas who loves cars and airplanes.

~Carroll Shelby

It was fun to blow off a Porsche with a 3900 donkey [the 1965 Shelby GT350 Mustang].

~Carroll Shelby

I love raising animals. I look at animals as more perfect human beings. I can relate to an animal.

~Carroll Shelby

What I wanted to do was build an automobile.

~Carroll Shelby

Racing has reached the point where it is pricing the young driver, no matter his talent, out of the game.
