The sense of the joy in anything is the sense of Christ.

~Caryll Houselander

Christ asks for a home in your soul, where he can be at rest with you, where he can talk easily to you, where you and he, alone together, can laugh and be silent and be delighted with one another.

~Caryll Houselander

God speaks silently, God speaks in your heart; if your heart is noisy, chattering, you will not hear.

~Caryll Houselander

In every passerby, everywhere - Christ . . . He is in everyone - there can be no outcasts.

~Caryll Houselander

We are only syllables of the perfect Word.

~Caryll Houselander

The love for material things grows like a fungus in the soul and destroys the loveliness of the human heart utterly.

~Caryll Houselander

There is no way of learning of God except through the adventure of our own heart.

~Caryll Houselander

We are the mediocre, we are the half givers, we are the half lovers, we are the savourless salt. Break the hard crust of complacency. Quicken in us the sharp grace of desire.

~Caryll Houselander

Powerful to alleviate, to delay, to camouflage, though money is, in the end it lets us down.

~Caryll Houselander

God is everywhere: yes, but how dim faith is, what a remote idea heaven is, in the modern world!

~Caryll Houselander

We are united to Him, we are one, and it is when His Passion becomes real to us, through experience and love, that we grow aware of His presence in us.
