Remember that you are an Englishman, and have consequently won first prize in the lottery of life.

~Cecil Rhodes

Ask any man what nationality he would prefer to be, and ninety nine out of a hundred will tell you that they would prefer to be Englishmen

~Cecil Rhodes

If there be a God, I think he would like me to paint Africa British-Red as possible.

~Cecil Rhodes

So little done, so much to do.

~Cecil Rhodes

You are an Englishman, and have subsequently drawn the greatest prize in the lottery of life.

~Cecil Rhodes

When people praise you, don't let it go to your head. When they criticize you, don't let it go to your heart.

~Cecil Rhodes

Pure philanthropy is very well in its way but philanthropy plus five percent is a good deal better.

~Cecil Rhodes

Man begets, but land does not beget.

~Cecil Rhodes

I have found out one thing and that is, if you have an idea, and it is a good idea, if you only stick to it you will come out all right.

~Cecil Rhodes

The real fact is that I could no longer stand their eternal cold mutton.

~Cecil Rhodes

Wherever you turn your eyeâ€”except in scienceâ€”an Oxford man is at the top of the tree.

~Cecil Rhodes

I have too much work on my hands and I would not be a dutiful husband.

~Cecil Rhodes
